Byrnes, 2011-08-17 Many Catholic priests nuns and brothers in the United States take a strong interest in US policies that affect their brothers and sisters abroad In fact when the policies of their native government pose significant dangers to their people internationally these US citizens engage actively in a variety of political processes in order to protect and advance the interests of the transnational religious communities to which they belong In this provocative examination of the place of religion in world politics Timothy A Byrnes focuses on three Catholic communities Jesuit Maryknoll and Benedictine and how they seek to shape US policy in El Salvador
