Strategic Management For Government Agencies An Institutional Approach For Developing And Transition Economies:

Strategic Management for Government Agencies Navin Girishankar, Migara De Silva, 1998-01-01 This paper presents a conceptual framework for the strategic management of government agencies in developing and transition economies It delineates a working model of an efficient government agency for which core strategy internal organizational design and external environment are aligned It then demonstrates how the objectives of public sector management are ideally based on assessments of areas of misalignment in government agencies

Strategic Management for Government Agencies: an Institutional Approach for Developing and Transition Economies N. Girishankar, M. Desilva, 1998 The Agrarian Economies of Central and Eastern Europe and the Commonwealth of Independent States Csaba Csáki, John D. Nash, 1998 Content Description Includes bibliographical references p Evolution of Agricultural Services in Sub-Saharan Africa

Venkatachalam Venkatesan, Jacob Kampen, 1998-01-01 This paper traces the evolution of World Bank support to agricultural services particularly agricultural extension and research in Sub Saharan Africa It describes the Bank s experience with the implementation of national programs in agricultural extension and research and how these are evolving to face the problems of the future The paper concludes that participation of the beneficiaries in the design and implementation of programs is critical and will ensure the programs convergence towards rural development World Bank HIV/AIDS Interventions

Julia Dayton, 1998-01-01 The AIDS epidemic is one of the greatest development challenges of the 20th century Since 1986 the World Bank has supported member countries efforts to fight the epidemic in many ways including committing over US 550 million to HIV AIDS prevention and mitigation efforts This paper the first comprehensive study of all World Bank HIV AIDS related activities assesses the appropriateness of Bank interventions from the perspective of public economies and reviews the economic evaluation and implementation of projects Choices in Financing Health Care and Old Age Security Nicholas Prescott, 1998 In November 1997 the World Bank and Singapore s Institute of Policy Studies sponsored a conference

Financing Health Care and Old Age Security to assess and identify potential solutions to these concerns It addressed a topic of concern to nearly every country developing and industrial that is how to deal with the implications of financing medical care and income security for rapidly aging populations The issues identified and the solutions proposed can provide insight and guidance for policymakers researchers and others interested in addressing these challenges now Of special interest are the contributors analyses of Singapore s unique integrated approach to managing social risk which is based on mandatory individual savings accounts China Robert Prescott Taylor, V. Susan Bogach, 1998-01-01 Action is urgently needed to develop China s market infrastructure improve information access and commercial renewable energy capabilities and implement policies necessary to enable expansion of commercial markets This report summarizes recommended priority areas for international support to strengthen China s renewable energy development effort Land Reform and Farm

Restructuring in Moldova Zvi Lerman, Csaba Csáki, Victor Moroz, 1998-01-01 Agricultural reforms including privatization of land and farm restructuring are an important cornerstone for overall transformation of the economies of the former socialist world This paper summarizes the current status of land reform in Moldova and shows how there has been clear progress in creating a market based agriculture and food sector in Moldova The results of this study indicate that genuine restructuring and transition to full fledged private farming have resulted in improved profitability and higher incomes for private farmers than those achieved by traditional collectives

School Enrollment Decline in Sub-Saharan Africa Joseph W. B. Bredie, Girindre K. Beeharry, 1998-01-01 The overarching objective of the World Bank's assistance to Sub Saharan African countries is poverty reduction through sustained economic growth at a high level and improved social services Past experience shows that a minimum level of educational attainment has been a prerequisite for the success of such a strategy The current level of education development has been low and the development of primary education has stagnated and even declined in some countries since the early 1980s This paper examines the likely causes for deteriorating enrollment rates in Africa It looks at the constraints in the demand for schooling and gives possible reasons for stagnation

Comparative Public Administration Eric E. Otenyo, Nancy S. Lind, Lawrence R. Jones, 2006-07-24 Public administration scholars and practitioners are increasingly concerned with the need to broaden the field's scope beyond particularistic accounts of administration in given countries This title brings together seminal readings in comparative development public administration and contemporary public management scholarship
