Workbook for Helping Professionals provides a comprehensive review of planning strategies and related concepts including leadership and the role of the helping professional as change agent. The text intends to demystify planning processes and related jargon for graduate students and practitioners in the helping professions and provides examples from the field. Effective grant writing is emphasized as well as information related to planning for change through the use of small groups and activities. In the authors' experience, many professionals recognize the need for effective planning but often balk at using material that seems too far removed from their scope of expertise and academic discipline. The text presents material in a straightforward manner that is intended to make planning accessible and meaningful to these individuals who are uniquely qualified to effect positive change.

Foundations of Educational Leadership Jeffrey S. Brooks, Anthony H.

Normore, 2017-09-07 Foundations of Educational Leadership provides a fresh and research-based perspective on educational leadership, exploring 10 specific aspects of globalization in which educational leaders must be literate in order to establish and sustain relevant and useful educational experiences for students in their schools. In addition to covering traditional concepts such as culture, instructional leadership, professional ethics, and politics, well-known authors Brooks and Normore also introduce several conventionally neglected cutting-edge concepts like spirituality, holistic health, and information leadership. This important book emphasizes how a framework of learning, literacy, leadership, and reflection is critical to the preparation and practice of educational leaders. Foundations of Educational Leadership ensures aspiring and practicing leaders will be prepared to influence processes and outcomes for creating a more just and equitable environment for all students. Key Features: Each chapter focuses on what leaders need to learn the concepts with which they need to be literate; how to lead in the area and aspects on which they should reflect. Discussion sections at the end of each chapter include prompts, questions, and activities suited for engaging ideas alone or with classmates. An eResource features additional resources and video content.

Leadership, Community Partnerships and Schools in the Pacific Islands Jeremy

Dorovolomo, Govinda Ishwar Lingam, 2020-07-08 This book explores a range of educational issues in the Pacific Islands from school leadership in various contexts to the importance of forging cordial school and community partnerships. By presenting perspectives from a wide range of stakeholders including community leaders, teachers, parents, and students, it adds to the ongoing dialogue on educational issues in the Pacific Islands. Moreover, it promotes the forging of healthy school ecosystems that value equality, diversity, community engagement, fruitful citizenship, proactive school leadership, and valuable student learning to drive an educated Pacific Islands population into the future.
