Reinking, 2007 Rhetorical Strategies in Late Antique Literature , 2017-08-28 Rhetorical Strategies in Late Antique Literature Images Metatexts and Interpretation is a collection of essays that survey the rhetorical tropes and the metaliterary dimension of works by important authors in a period marked by intense and thriving contact between Classical paideia and Christian culture The contributions of this volume dissect the reuse of Classical literature and the deployment of rhetorical techniques in the creation of texts and images meant for use in cultural and religious debates by building on recent interpretations of the late antique cultural landscape as a milieu in which our understanding of religious dichotomies requires a more nuanced reassessment The authors treated in this volume include Eusebius of Caesarea Methodius of Olympus Gregory of Nazianzus Nonnus and the emperor Julian Literary Structure and Rhetorical Strategies in The Hebrew Bible L.J. de Regt, J. de Waard, J.P. Fokkelman, 2023-08-14 Analysis of text structures has been a dominant feature in Biblical studies for quite some time More recently scholars have focused on rhetorical strategies that have been employed in Biblical texts In this volume rhetorical as well as structural approaches to the Hebrew Bible have been brought together It contains studies on a range of topics and on a good many texts and textual corpuses Interpretation culminates in translation The contributors to this volume have discussed the implications of their findings for Bible translators Many of these translational implications have been put together in an epilogue The volume thus not only intends to show the present state of our knowledge of literary and rhetorical techniques employed in the Bible on these points it aims to be a selective guide to translators as well The volume
