Corporate Political Strategies of Private Chinese Firms Hao Ma, Shu Lin, Neng Liang, 2012-03-12 This book is about how Chinese entrepreneurs deal with China s most important institution the government in their struggle to survive and even prosper in China s transitional economy It takes an inside look at several private firms in China and provides a first hand account as well as the underlying rationale and decision considerations of their corporate political strategy The book is based firmly on solid academic research but actually written with both practitioners and scholars in mind. It offers candid and insightful quotes and observations from the owners and executives of China's private firms with regards to their dealing with the government. This book advances a typology of corporate political strategies based on the respective motivations of the business, the entrepreneurs and their firms and the government, the government institutions and individual officials as well as the modes of their interactions. Eight different types of political strategies by China's private firms are identified and illustrated with real life examples ranging from one night stand, situational shopper, good ole friend, patronage seeker, model volunteer, institutional improviser, direct participator to red hat insider. The book also dissects a living case and traces the development of one particular private firm from its humble start up to present day glory which fittingly illustrates the evolution and dynamics of the various types of political strategies the firm employed at different stages of its growth. For anyone who wants to understand China's private firms and the Chinese government, thus be able to deal with them more effectively, this book is a must read.
