Homoeroticism and Chivalry R. Zeikowitz, 2016-04-30 Zeikowitz explores both affirming and denigrating discourses of male same sex desire in diverse fourteenth century chivalric texts and describes the sociopolitical forces motivating those discourses He attempts to dethrone traditional heteronormative views by drawing attention to culturally normative queer desire Zeikowitz articulates possible homoeroticized spectatorial interactions between male readers and imagined or actual model knights dramatized accounts of same sex unions and mutually stimulating or competing forces of homosocial and heterosexual desire in chivalric texts such as Charny's Book of Chivalry Sir Gawain and the Green Knight and Troilus and Criseyde He also examines how intimate male bonds are rendered sodomitically inflected dangerous attachments in chronicle narratives of the reigns of Edward II and Richard II Opacity and the Closet Nicholas De Villiers, 2012 Looking beyond the closet at the lives and works of renowned queer public figures Derek Jarman's Angelic Conversations Jim Ellis, 2009 Printbegrnsninger Der kan printes 10 sider ad gangen og max 40 sider pr session Worlding Forster Stuart Christie, 2013-11-05 Focusing on the literary works and career of British novelist E M Forster 1879 1970 this book argues that the writer adapted a much older literary form the pastoral to the purposes of writing about modern British experience The publication points out that Forster's pastoral fiction challenged conventional parameters for the British novel allowing for the emergence of his subsequent modernist classic A Passage to India including its critique of British imperialism The monograph also provides a rationale for why Forster subsequently turned his artistic focus beyond Britain embracing public radio under the direction of the British Broadcasting Corporation Speculative Epistemologies John Rieder, 2021-09-15 Speculative Epistemologies is about truth effects in sf which stands for both science fiction and speculative fiction It examines six narratives one from each decade from the 1960s to the 2010s that challenge dominant assumptions about the normal the possible and the real It asks what the patterns of overlap and interference generated by texts located in border territories that make their identification as sf problematic and sometimes controversial can reveal about the dynamics of sf's multiple subcultures e g professionals academics and fans the complexity of the genre's communities of practice and their routes of production distribution and reception and the genre's shifting position within a broadly conceived field of literary and cultural production The speculative epistemologies in these stories are counter hegemonic ways of knowing ways of imagining knowing differently and the focus of this study is their effect on the formation of identities and communities Combining the methods of genre theory reception theory and the sociology of cultural production the readings of these six narratives trace a history of sf s increasingly feminist racially and ethnically diverse philosophically ambitious and politically engaged character from the 1960s to the present
