Alex North's A Streetcar Named Desire Annette Davison, 2009-02-17 This film score handbook provides a detailed analysis of Alex North's astounding score for Elia Kazan's 1951 adaptation of A Streetcar Named Desire. Beginning with a review of North's musical training and film scoring techniques, the book then uses approaches from both musicology and film studies to present a comprehensive exploration of the film's self-censorship and its impact on North's music, most notably in the film's infamous staircase scene. Book Prices: Used and Rare, 1994 Edward N. Zempel, 1994 English Language and Literature for the IB Diploma Lindsay Tandy, Alice Gibbons, Joseph Koszary, 2020-02-17 Developed in cooperation with the International Baccalaureate, everything you need to deliver a rich concept-based approach for the new IB Diploma English Language and Literature course. Navigate seamlessly through all aspects of the syllabus with in-depth coverage of the key concepts underpinning the new course structure and content. Investigate the three areas of exploration in detail and engage with global issues to help students become flexible critical readers. Provide a variety of texts with a breadth of reading material and forms from a diverse pool of authors. Engaging activities are provided to test understanding of each topic and develop skills. Guiding answers are available to check your responses. Identify opportunities to make connections across the syllabus with explicit reference to TOK EE and CAS. AB Bookman's Weekly, 1999 Tennessee Williams, T-shirt Modernism and the Refashionings of Theater S. E. Gontarski, 2021-07-06 Tennessee Williams' T-shirt Modernism and the Refashionings of Theater reappraises the received wisdom that Williams's work fell into decline in the late 1960s as the Naturalism he was associated with, not always through his own choice, was replaced by European theatrical experimentalism and as culture saw a lifting of sexual restrictions. It suggests instead that Williams was always experimental, always more Chekhov than Ibsen, a lyrical playwright inflected with the poetry of Hart Crane and that his late plays are as central to Williams's reshaping of American theater as those works of the immediate post-World War II era that brought him fame and fortune. Its general aim then is to engage the perception that Tennessee Williams is the greatest unknown playwright. America has produced David Savran, City University of New York. In many respects, the work of Tennessee Williams after a protracted period of neglect is primed for reappraisal, reinterpretations, and subsequently re-stagings. This work is part of that process academically, at very least, but performatively as well as academic reinterest often regenerates theatrical reinterest.
