Psychological Trauma and Addiction Treatment Bruce Carruth, 2013-10-23 Important reading for current and future addictions treatment clinicians this book synthesizes and integrates the expanding body of knowledge about combined trauma addiction treatment to specifically address the needs of clinicians in addiction treatment environments Here in a single source is an essential overview of trauma treatment for people in addiction treatment settings

Psychological Trauma and Addiction Treatment presents specific methodologies and techniques for clients in inpatient and outpatient addiction mental health settings. The contributors, leading clinicians and researchers in the field, provide a comprehensive set of scientific treatment approaches addressing a broad spectrum of trauma disorders. Psychological Trauma and Addiction Treatment brings you up to date authoritative coverage of the dynamics of co-occurring psychological trauma and addiction, all of the primary treatment frameworks currently utilized in trauma treatment, treatment frameworks that take gender into account, cognitive therapies in treating these co-occurring disorders, the role of psychodynamic psychotherapies in treatment, attachment disorders and their relation to trauma and addiction, treatment of EMDR as a treatment for traumatized addicts, the psychoneurology of trauma and the implications of psychoneurology in addictions and trauma treatment, how self-help groups can contribute to and limit recovery for psychologically traumatized clients, forgiveness therapy as an adjunct to trauma treatment, counselor self-care for those who work with this client population. Ultimately, this is a book of hope. Every author in this text has a firm belief that people with co-occurring trauma and addiction can recover, can maintain quality relationships, can confront life's challenges as they arise and can be happy and fulfilled. Psychological Trauma and Addiction Treatment is designed as essential reading for entry-level and experienced addiction counselors, social workers, professional counselors, psychologists, and others working in the trauma treatment field.

Adolescents and Their Families Stuart T. Hauser, Sally Isbell Powers, Gil G. Noam, 1991. This book examines the process of ego development in adolescence. It explores the diverse ways in which mothers and fathers subtly direct their teenagers on to one of the four main paths through adolescence and facilitate or impede their development and the equally diverse ways in which teenager's interactions with their parents may affect the parents. Throughout, choices of real children and parents are presented, some happy and successful, others troubled. The book is aimed at those who work professionally with adolescents and their families.

Disaster Mental Health Services Diane Garaventa Myers, David F. Wee, 2005. This text assists mental health clinicians and traumatologists in making the bridge between their clinical knowledge and skills and the unique, complex, chaotic, and highly political field of disaster. It combines information from prior research with the authors' practical experience in the field.

Living Beyond Loss Froma Walsh, Monica McGoldrick, 2004. Walsh and McGoldrick have fully revised and expanded this landmark work on the impact of death on the family system.

Adoption and Disruption Richard P. Barth, Marianne Berry, 2017-11-30. First Published in 2017. In this book, the authors move easily and often between the worlds of policy, practice, and research in child and family welfare. Their own research delineates better than any other to date the particular factors associated with successful and unsuccessful older special needs adoptions.
