Stretching Beyond Lifes Boundaries:

The Life of a Number B.T. Lawson, 2023-04-28 Do numbers have a life of their own or do we give them meaning How do data play a role in constructing people's perceptions of the world around them How far can we trust numbers to speak truth to power The COVID 19 pandemic offers a unique moment to answer these questions This book examines how politicians experts and journalists gave meaning to data through the story of seven iconic numbers from the pandemic Shedding light on a new dawn of data this book makes a valuable contribution to our understanding of the relationship between numbers meaning and society

Life Beyond Earth Luigi Vacca, 2025-04-30 This book analyzes the likelihood of intelligent civilizations from two different standpoints firstly using the famous Drake equation and secondly by analyzing some of the most popular hypotheses about the likely behavior of intelligent alien civilizations The existence of intelligent extraterrestrial civilizations in the universe is one of the most intriguing scientific and philosophical problems Is it possible that we are the only intelligent species in this incredibly vast universe Enrico Fermi one of the greatest physicists of the 20th century posed the same question during a lunch with his colleagues in 1950 What are the implications for a universe where there is only one intelligent species The universe may be stranger than we think

The Liturgy of Life Ricky Manalo, 2014-12-30 Everyday worship practices from praying the rosary to moments of recognizing the beauty of God's creation from being moved by the power of music to praying Vespers on an iPad not only take place at different locations and during different days of the week but also dynamically interact with one another The Liturgy of Life examines the interrelationship between the practice of Sunday Eucharist and the many unofficial worship practices that mark the everyday lives of Christians who continually negotiate the boundaries of official teaching on liturgy Drawing on the writings of theologians and sociologists of lived religion and data from an ethnographic research project this timely work stretches the contextual horizon of liturgical scholarship and presents a provocative and dynamic paradigm of Christian worship for the twenty first century

The Endless Life Samuel McChord Crothers, 1905 Dostoevsky in the Arts and Beyond Olga Tabachinkova, Liudmila Saraskina, Galima Lukina, Ekaterina Salnikova, 2024-08-30 The book is a substantial contribution to international Dostoevsky research exploring Dostoevsky's contemporary relevance from a multicultural and multidisciplinary perspective It offers some fresh readings of Dostoevsky's texts presenting new complex studies on the writer and his works in the mirror of several arts of the last three decades The book is divided into three Parts featuring researchers from Bulgaria Great Britain Russia and Ukraine Part One deals with conceptual issues treating Dostoevsky above all as a prophet and philosopher and thus determines the ideological system of coordinates for the studies presented in the rest of the book Part Two examines Dostoevsky's legacy through the lenses of literary theory music and Illustration art and Part Three via world cinema and theatre The volume has gathered together an array of original and innovative studies from world leading experts in Dostoevsky's creative universe to make an authoritative input into the field

Hope for the Earth Ernst M.

Conradie,2005-05-18 Hope for the Earth explores the viability of an eschatological approach to an ecological theology spirituality and praxis in the South African context The basic intuition of such an eschatological approach is that an environmental praxis can only be empowered on the basis of an adequate understanding of Christian hope Despair in the face of environmental destruction will inevitably lead to a spirit of resignation Where then can a vision of hope that includes hope for the earth be found The author proposes a road map for eschatology based on the observation that eschatology has traditionally responded to three aspects of the human predicament namely 1 the evil effects of sin 2 the problem of finitude and transience and 3 the limitations of human power and knowledge in space Part A This analysis is used to fathom the depths of despair as a result of environmental destruction Part B The Biblical roots and subsequent history of Christian eschatology are discussed briefly Part C Recent contributions in Christian eschatology ecological theology cosmology and South African expressions of hope are explored in depth in search of a vision of hope that includes hope for the earth itself Part D The eschatological road map is used to develop a vision of hope for the earth on the basis of a theology of life life amidst death and destruction life beyond death and eternal life in the presence of God Part E Finally the implications of this vision for an ecological ethos spirituality and praxis in the South African context are indicated Part F Breaking Down Barriers & Becoming FREE Stephanie Thom,2014-03-07 Breaking Down Barriers and Becoming Free is a compilation of writings that reveals a deep introspection of the struggle of learning to understand yourself and learning to be known in God This book illustrates an internal manifestation of breakthrough enlightenment and freedom through the transforming power of God It is a journey that frees one from the concept of who we have been taught God is which usually derived from religion to an actual relationship and knowledge of who God actually is It also shows the tenacity that can be found in someone who truly seeks to know God and the infinite love of God that undoubtedly always seems to rescue us before we fall Who shall separate us from the love of Christ shall tribulation or distress or persecution or famine or nakedness or peril or sword For I am persuaded that neither death nor life nor angels nor principalities nor powers nor things present nor things to come nor height nor depth nor any other creature shall be able to separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord
