Mozart, Haydn and Early Beethoven Daniel Heartz, 2015-05-27 A vivid portrait of Mozart and Haydn's greatest achievements and young Beethoven's works under their influence Completing the trilogy begun with Haydn Mozart and the Viennese School 1740-1780 and continued in Music in European Capitals The Galant Style 1720-1780 Daniel Heartz concludes his extensive chronicle of the Classical Era with this much anticipated third volume By the early years of the nineteenth century Haydn Mozart and Beethoven had become a catchphrase a commonplace expression signifying musical excellence Indeed even in his early career Beethoven was hailed as the only musician worthy to stand beside Haydn and Mozart In this volume Heartz winds up the careers of Haydn and Mozart who during the 1780s produced their most famous and greatest works and describes Beethoven's first decade in Vienna during which he began composing by patterning his works on the two masters The tumult and instability of the French Revolution serves as a vivid historical backdrop for the tale

Strong on Music Vera Brodsky Lawrence, 1995-12-18 In this second volume of Strong on Music Vera Brodsky Lawrence carries into the 1850s her landmark account of the nineteenth century New York music scene Using music entries from George Templeton Strong's famous journals most published here for the first time as a point of departure Lawrence provides a vivid portrait of a vibrant musical culture Each chapter presents one year in the musical life of New York City with Lawrence's extensive commentary enriched both by excerpts from Strong's diaries and a lavish selection of little known music criticism and comment from the period The reviews written by an often truculent sometimes venal tribe of music journalists cover the entire world of music from opera to barrel organ salon to saloon In this New York operas performed by renowned artists are parodied by blackface minstrels performances of the Philharmonic Society are
