cathdrale m di vale dans les littératures russe et française des XIX^e et XX^e siècles. Au centre de l'essai, les images classiques de la cathdrale livre de la cathdrale sont animées et de la cathdrale végétal sont remplacées par de nombreuses similitudes entre les œuvres poétiques et en prose d'auteurs russes et français. En effet, de leurs apparences divergentes, la cathdrale concrète se dématérialise progressivement pour se transformer en mystérieuse cathdrale engloutie ou en précaire cathdrale de brume. Rhabilitée par les romantiques, l'édifice médiéval sert lui-même de modèle de comparaison, ce qui engendre un renversement des métaphores habituelles. Symbole du sacré lieu de culte, l'édifice religieux se métamorphose ainsi sous la plume des écrivains pour constituer un véritable kaléidoscope dont les images surprennent par leur originalité et leur profondeur et parviennent à rapprocher les deux cultures.

Bénézit, 1924 Un siècle de documentaires français Guy Gauthier, 2004-09-09 Né en France sous sa forme la plus rudimentaire avec les opérateurs Lumière, le documentaire a acquis ses lettres de noblesse hors de France avec Robert Flaherty aux États-Unis, Dziga Vertov en Union soviétique et John Grierson en Grande Bretagne. Pour sa part, le documentaire français est construit sous l'influence des techniques et des climats historiques, chaque décennie apportant sa contribution et ajoutant des genres nouveaux. Les foyers les plus productifs ont été la Nouvelle vague documentaire au moment de la transition du muet au parlant, un instant de création cosmopolite entre populisme et avant-garde, l'effervescence de l'après-guerre, surtout dans le court-métrage, la révolution du direct en liaison avec Montréal et Paris dans les années 1960, l'exploration de la mémoire vivante et le cinéma militant des années 1970, puis grâce à la vitalité de la production au cours des années 1980, l'explosion du documentaire de création qui contribue à faire de la France un pays d'accueil pour les documentaristes du monde entier. Le documentaire contemporain est très loin du documentaire des origines, renouvelant sans cesse les hypothèses de départ. Un cinéma part entièrement français par le label mais riche de rencontres multiples européennes et américaines. Guy Gauthier, ancien rédacteur en chef de Image et son, La Revue du cinéma, Mensuel du cinéma et CinémaAction, est l'auteur de plusieurs monographies sur André Tarkovsky (1989), René Allio (1993) et Chris Marker (2001). Il a publié en 1997 une étude stimulante sur le cinéma documentaire intitulée Le Documentaire, un autre cinéma. Documentaire, le mot et la chose. Premières années, les tout premiers (1895-1920), Années folles, avant-garde et populisme (1920-1930), Les temps difficiles (1930-1945), Le triomphe du court-métrage (1945-1960), Le temps du direct (1960-1970), De nouvelles terres en vue (1970-1985), Le résultat en question, auteurs représentés (1985-à-présent).
