Terrible Beauty Patrick J. Keane, 1988 Terrible Beauty Patrick J. Keane, 1988 Modernism, Ireland and the Erotics of Memory Nicholas Andrew Miller, 2002-09-19 In Modernism Ireland and the Erotics of Memory Nicholas Miller re-examines memory and its role in modern Irish culture. Arguing that a continuous renegotiation of memory is characteristic of Irish modernist writing, Miller investigates a series of case studies in modern Irish historical imagination. He reassesses Ireland's self-construction through external or foreign discourses such as the cinema and proposes readings of Yeats and Joyce as counter-memorialists. Combining theoretical and historical approaches, Miller shows how the modernist handling of history transforms both memory and the story of the past by highlighting readers' investments in histories that are produced specifically and concretely through local acts of reading. This original study will attract scholars of Modernism, Irish studies, film and literary theory. Joyce: Feminism / Post / Colonialism, 2021-11-15 James Joyce is located between and constructed within two worlds: the national and international, the political and cultural systems of colonialism and postcolonialism. Joyce's political project is to construct a postcolonial contra-modernity to write the incommensurable differences of colonial, postcolonial and gendered subjectivities and in doing so to reorient the axis of power and knowledge. What Joyce dramatizes in his hybrid writing is the political and cultural remainder of imperial history or patriarchal canons, a remainder that resists assimilation into the totalizing narratives of modernity. Through this remainder of both politics and the psyche, Joyce reveals how a minority culture can construct political and personal agency. Joyce: Feminism Post Colonialism, edited by Ellen Carol Jones, bears witness to the construction of that agency, tracing the inscription of the racial and sexual other in colonial nationalist and postnational representations, deciphering the history of the possible. Contributors are Gregory Castle, Gerald Doherty, Enda Duffy, James Fairhall, Peter Hitchcock, Ellen Carol Jones, Ranjana Khanna, Patrick McGee, Marilyn Reizbaum, Susan de Sola Rodstein, Carol Shloss and David Spurr. Anglo-Irish Modernism and the Maternal D. Stubbings, 2000-09-19 Anglo-Irish Modernism and the Maternal argues that a focus on the construction of mother figures in Irish culture illuminates the extraordinary achievement of the Irish modernists. Essentially, the seminal Irish modernists, Moore, Joyce, Synge, Yeats and O'Casey, resisted those mother figures sanctioned by cultural discourses, re-writing her in order to elude her. In this, they not only re-constituted language and representation, they accessed and re-figured their own creative selves. Celtic Women's Spirituality Edain McCoy, 2017-05-08 An informative guide for women looking to create their own spiritual practice centered in Celtic mystic tradition. Every woman holds a bright treasure within her: the sacred flame of the divine feminine. And every woman can awaken that burning goddess spirit and release the wisdom and magick of her birthright. B. Yeats Daniel Tompsett,2018-06-13 Unlocking the Poetry of W B Yeats undertakes a thorough re reading of Yeats oeuvre as an extended meditation on the image and theme of the heart as it is evident within the poetry It places the heart at the centre of a complex web of Yeatsian preoccupations and associations from the biographical to the poetic and philosophical to the mythological and mystical In particular the book seeks to unlock Yeats mystifying aesthetic vision via his understanding of the ancient Egyptian Weighing of the Heart ceremony The work provides a chronological narrative arc that looks to use the theme of the heart as it recurs in the poetry in order to circumvent and overcome more established frameworks Its purpose is to offer refreshing ways of conceptualizing and building alternatives to more deeply entrenched but not entirely satisfactory arguments that have been offered since Yeats death in 1939 while demonstrating the centrality of the occult to Yeats art Women and the Colonial Gaze Tamara L. Hunt,Micheline R. Lessard,2002-06 Women and the Colonial Gaze is the first

Knirck, 2006 Women of the Dáil explores the role of political women during the Irish revolution specifically those who were Dáil deputies and related to recently deceased patriots These women successfully used familial links to bolster their political credibility during the years after the Easter Rising but found this rhetorical strategy much more difficult to deploy in the wake of the Anglo Irish Treaty Drawing on a number of published and unpublished sources Women of the Dáil analyzes this rhetorical shift in order to explain the interplay between gender republicanism and the Irish revolution
