Personality Tests and Assessments (Psychology Revivals) Philip E. Vernon, 2014-01-27 Originally published in 1953 this book provided the first comprehensive account of methods of personality assessment by a British author It starts with a short survey of personality theory pointing out the difficulties in any method of testing or assessment Next it describes the weaknesses of the common interview method Throughout the emphasis is on methods which are usable in educational or vocational guidance and selection not on methods which are mainly of scientific interest Thereafter it takes up each main type of technique tests based on physique or psychological measures on expressive movement such as gestures and handwriting tests of behaviour including War Office Selection Board house party methods ratings and rating scales questionnaires and so called projective techniques The evidence for or against each test or method is surveyed and numerous references provided for relevant literature Illustrative excerpts are given of many of the more promising tests and some pictorial illustrations British work in this field at the time is covered completely and an attempt is made to provide a fair summary of the main contributions of American and other psychologists of the day A Study of Introvert-extravert Responses to Certain Test Situations Raymond Alfred Schwegler, 1929 The Content and Measurement of the Reading Vocabulary Sister Mary Irmina, 1927 Educational Research Monographs Catholic University of America, 1928 The Psychological Register Carl Murchison, 1929 Archives of Psychology Robert Sessions Woodworth, 1924 The Journal of Psychology Carl Murchison, 1978 The Boston Process Approach to Neuropsychological Assessment Lee Ashendorf PhD, Rod Swenson PhD, ABN, David J. Libon PhD, FACPN, ABN, 2013-07-12 The Boston Process Approach to neuropsychological assessment advanced by Edith Kaplan has a long and well respected history in the field However its theoretical and empirical support has not previously been assembled in an easily accessible format This volume fills that void by compiling the historical empirical and practical teachings of the Process Approach The reader will find a detailed history of the precursors to this model of thought its development through its proponents such as Harold Goodglass Nelson Butters Laird Cermak and Norman Geschwind and its continuing legacy The second section provides a guide to applying the Boston Process Approach to some of the field's most commonly used measures such as the various Wechsler Intelligence Scales the Trail Making Test the California Verbal Learning Test and the Boston Naming Test Here the reader will find a detailed history of the empirical evidence for test administration and interpretation using Boston Process Approach tenets The final section of the book provides various perspectives on the implementation of the Boston Process Approach in various clinical and research settings and with specialized populations The Clinical Psychologists Bernard Lubin, Eugene Elmer Levitt, Educational Research Monographs, 1927 The Structure of Human Abilities (Psychology Revivals) Philip E. developments in factorial work on human abilities from 1950 1959 Much research had been carried out during the years leading up to publication in England and America into mental abilities and modern methods of statistical treatment especially factor analysis had been increasingly used It was felt that the mass of diverse material was apt to confuse the student of psychology of the time especially as the results of such research were often apparently conflicting Professor Vernon one of the leading experts in this branch of psychology sifted the material and attempted to provide a consistent picture of our mental structure Psychological Measurements in Psychopharmacology P.
