The Irish Ecclesiastical Record ,1910 Freedom of Religion, Apostasy and Islam Abdullah Saeed, 2017-03-02 Debate on freedom of religion as a human right takes place not only in the Western world but also in Muslim communities throughout the world For Muslims concerned for this freedom one of the major difficulties is the punishment for apostasy death for those who desert Islam This book argues that the law of apostasy and its punishment by death in Islamic law is untenable in the modern period Apostasy conflicts with a variety of foundation texts of Islam and with the current ethos of human rights in particular the freedom to choose one s religion Demonstrating the early development of the law of apostasy as largely a religio political tool the authors show the diversity of opinion among early Muslims on the punishment highlighting the substantial ambiguities about what constitutes apostasy the problematic nature of some of the key textual evidence on which the punishment of apostasy is based and the neglect of a vast amount of clear Qur anic texts in favour of freedom of religion in the construction of the law of apostasy Examining the significant challenges the punishment of apostasy faces in the modern period inside and outside Muslim communities exploring in particular how apostasy and its punishment is dealt with in a multi religious Muslim majority country Malaysia and the challenges and difficulties it faces there the authors discuss arguments by prominent Muslims today for an absolute freedom of religion and for discarding the punishment of apostasy

Terror in the Heart of Freedom Hannah Rosen, 2009-06-01 The meaning of race in the antebellum southern United States was anchored in the racial exclusivity of slavery coded as black and full citizenship coded as white as well as male These traditional definitions of race were radically disrupted after emancipation when citizenship was granted to all persons born in the United States and suffrage was extended to all men Hannah Rosen persuasively argues that in this critical moment of Reconstruction contests over the future meaning of race

were often fought on the terrain of gender Sexual violence specifically white on black rape emerged as a critical arena in postemancipation struggles over African American citizenship Analyzing the testimony of rape survivors Rosen finds that white men often staged elaborate attacks meant to enact prior racial hierarchy Through their testimony black women defiantly rejected such hierarchy and claimed their new and equal rights Rosen explains how heated debates over interracial marriage were also attempts by whites to undermine African American men s demands for suffrage and a voice in public affairs By connecting histories of rape and discourses of social equality with struggles over citizenship Rosen shows how gendered violence and gendered rhetorics of race together produced a climate of terror for black men and women seeking to exercise their new rights as citizens Linking political events at the city state and regional levels Rosen places gender and sexual violence at the heart of understanding the reconsolidation of race and racism in the postemancipation United States

Slavery and Freedom in Texas Jason A. Gillmer, 2017 In these absorbing accounts of five court cases Jason A Gillmer offers intimate glimpses into Texas society in the time of slavery Each story unfolds along boundaries between men and women slave and free black and white rich and poor old and young as rigid social orders are upset in ways that drive people into the courtroom One case involves a settler in a rural county along the Colorado River his thirty year relationship with an enslaved woman and the claims of their children as heirs A case in East Texas arose after an owner refused to pay an overseer who had shot one of her slaves Another case details how a free family of color carved out a life in the sparsely populated marshland of Southeast Texas only to lose it all as waves of new settlers civilized the county An enslaved woman in Galveston who was set free in her owner s will and who got an uncommon level of support from her attorneys is the subject of another case In a Central Texas community as another case recounts citizens forced a Choctaw native into court in an effort to gain freedom for his slave a woman who easily passed as white The cases considered here include Gaines v Thomas Clark v Honey Brady v Price and Webster v Heard All of them pitted communal attitudes and values against the exigencies of daily life in an often harsh place Here are real people in their own words as gathered from trial records various legal documents and many other sources People of many colors from diverse backgrounds weave their way in and out of the narratives We come to know what mattered most to them and where those personal concerns stood before the law

The Distant Shores of Freedom Subarno Chattarji, 2019-11-18 The Distant Shores of Freedom analyses literary works in English written by Vietnamese refugees in the US Fiction and memoirs by Vietnamese Americans recover stories and memories that are often different from mainstream American ones and that difference enables readers to think of the US war in Vietnam from perspectives that are missing in mainstream representations Dwelling not only on the war and its aftermaths Vietnamese American writings also ponder over the existential issues of exile the idea of home the pain of marginality and racism the question of community formation within the US and the complexity of diasporic lives Subarno

Chattarji raises critical questions such as who gets to speak and write and to what ends and purposes Who reads Vietnamese American writings and how can we account for these publications in the US over a period of time What can and cannot be written or spoken What is remembered and what is silenced What traumas and memories are articulated These questions point towards a larger context of diaspora studies as well as the rituals of cultural memory that complicate our understanding of the Vietnam War and its aftermaths
