and art schools and the highly political public controversies surrounding arts funding All the key movements are fully discussed including early American Modernism the New Negro movement Regionalism Abstract Expressionism Pop Art and Neo Expressionism After the Revolution Eleanor Heartney, Helaine Posner, Nancy Princenthal, Sue Scott, 2013-11-04 Why Have There Been No Great Women Artists asked the prominent art historian Linda Nochlin in a provocative 1971 essay Today her insightful critique serves as a benchmark against which the progress of women artists may be measured In this book four prominent critics and curators describe the impact of women artists on contemporary art since the advent of the feminist movement Modernism and the Meaning of Corporate Persons Lisa Siraganian, 2020 Exploring legal treatises court decisions political illustrations photographs and modernist literature this volume reveals that the ambiguous status of corporate intention in the first half of the twentieth century provoked conflicting theories of meaning and interpretation still debated today The Serpent and the Fire Jerome Rothenberg, 2024-10-22 Jerome Rothenberg's final anthology an experiment in omnipoetics with Javier Taboada reaches into the deepest origins of the Americas north and south to redefine America and its poetries The Serpent and the Fire breaks out of deeply entrenched models that limit American literature to work written in English within the present boundaries of the United States Editors Jerome Rothenberg and Javier Taboada gather vital pieces from all parts of the Western Hemisphere and the breadth of European and Indigenous languages within a unique range of cultures and languages going back several millennia an experiment in what the editors call an American omnipoetics The Serpent and the Fire is divided into four chronological sections from early pre Columbian times to the immediately contemporary and five thematic sections that move freely across languages and shifting geographical boundaries to underscore the complexities conflicts contradictions and continuities of the poetry of the Americas The book also boasts contextualizing commentaries to connect the poets and poems in dialogue across time and space Profile Pieces Sue Joseph, Richard Lance Keeble, 2015-10-14 This book examines the history theory and journalistic practice of profile writing Profiles and the practice of writing them are of increasing interest to scholars of journalism because conflicts between the interviewer and the subject exemplify the changing nature of journalism itself While the subject often through the medium of their press representative struggles to retain control of the interview space the journalist seeks to subvert it This interesting and multi layered interaction however has rarely been subject to critical scrutiny partly because profiles have traditionally been regarded as public relations exercises or as soft journalism However chapters in this volume reveal not only that profiling has historically taken many different forms but that the idea of the interview as a contested space has applications beyond the subject of celebrated individuals The volume looks at the profile's historical beginnings at the contemporary manufacture of celebrity versus the ordinary at profiling communities countries and movements at profiling the destitute at sporting personalities and finally at profiling and trauma Shifting the Blame Nan Goodman, 2021-03-09 Drawing on legal cases legal debates and fiction including works by James Fenimore Cooper Mark Twain Stephen Crane and

Charles Chesnutt Nan Goodman investigates changing notions of responsibility and agency in nineteenth century America By looking at accidents and accident law in the industrializing society Goodman shows how courts moved away from the doctrine of strict liability to a new notion of liability that emphasized fault and negligence Shifting the Blame reveals the pervasive impact of this radically new theory of responsibility in understandings of industrial hazards in manufacturing dangers and in the stories that were told and retold about accidents In exciting tales of the actions of good Samaritans or of sea steamboat or railroad accidents features of risk that might otherwise escape our attention such as the suddenness of impact the encounter between strangers and the debates over blame and responsibility were reconstructed in a manner that revealed both imagined and actual solutions to one of the most difficult philosophical and social conflicts in the nineteenth century United States Through literary and legal stories of accidents Goodman suggests we learn a great deal about what Americans thought about blame injury and individual responsibility in one of the most formative periods of our history
