Text And Context In Islamic Societies:

Text & Context in Islamic Societies Irene A. Bierman, 2004 A collection of papers from the sixteenth Giorgio Levi Della Vida conference which honored Andre Raymond and Josef van Ess Conceptualizing Islam Frank Peter, Paula Schrode, Ricarda Stegmann, 2025-03-31 In recent decades academic debates on how to conceptualize Islam as an object of study and how to approach it theoretically have been revitalized Not only has research on Islam grown enormously and become much more differentiated but Islam is also being discussed more intensively in society and politics than ever before This reader which brings together the perspectives of various disciplines provides an overview of academic approaches to Islam against the backdrop of these in some cases tense entanglements Through two contributions from scholars working on Buddhism and Hinduism these debates are situated in the context of broader trajectories of research history In sum this book does not only offer its readers entry points to a more complex and refined understanding of Islam but also to research processes within the study of Islam as well as religion in general Islamic Thought in the Dialogue of Cultures Hans Daiber, 2012-08-03 The monograph aims at a historical and bibliographical survey of the Qur'anic and rational world view of early Islam of the period of translations from Greek into Syriac and Arabic and of the impact of Islamic thought on Europe

Shaping a Qur'anic Worldview Vanessa De Gifis, 2014-04-16 Exploring the subjectivity of the Qur'an's meaning in the world this book analyses Qur'anic referencing in Muslim political rhetoric Informed by classical Arabic Islamic rhetorical theory the author examines Arabic documents attributed to the Abbasid Caliph al Ma'mun r 813-833 whose rule coincided with the maturation of classical Islamic political thought and literary culture She demonstrates how Qur'anic referencing functions as tropological exegesis whereby verses in the Qur'an are reinterpreted through the lens of subjective experience At the same time socio-historical experiences are understood in terms of the Qur'an's moral typology which consists of interrelated polarities that define good and bad moral characters in mutual orientation Through strategic deployment of scriptural references within the logical scheme of rhetorical argument the Caliph constructs moral analogies between paradigmatic characters in the Qur'an and people in his social milieu and situates himself as moral reformer and guide in order to persuade his audiences of the necessity of the Caliphate and the religious moral imperative of obedience to his authority The Ma'mun case study is indicative of the nature and function of Qur'anic referencing across historical periods and thus contributes to broader conversations about the impact of the Qur'an on the shaping of Islamic civilization This book is an invaluable resource for those with an interest in Early Islamic History Islam and the rhetoric of contemporary Middle East regional and global Islamic politics Culture of Letter-Writing in Pre-Modern Islamic Society Adrian Gully, 2008-02-07 The Culture of Letter Writing in Pre Modern Islamic Society received an honourable mention from the British Kuwait Friendship Society at BRISMES 2009 Writing letters was an important component of intellectual life in the Middle Islamic period telling us much about the cultural history of pre modern Islamic society This book offers a unique analysis of letter writing focusing on the notion of the power of the pen The author looks at the wider context of epistolography relating it to the power structures of Islamic society in that period He also attempts to identify some of the similarities and differences between Muslim modes of letter writing and those of western cultures One of the strengths of this book is that it is based on a wide range of primary Arabic sources thus reflecting the broader epistemological importance of letter writing in Islamic society

Islamic Astronomy and Geography David A. King, 2022-02-13 This volume of 12 studies mainly published during the past 15 years begins with an overview of the Islamic astronomy covering not only sophisticated mathematical astronomy and instrumentation but also simple folk astronomy and the ways in which astronomy was used in the service of religion It continues with discussions of the importance of Islamic instruments and scientific manuscript illustrations Three studies deal with the regional schools that developed in Islamic astronomy in this case Egypt and the Maghrib Another focuses on a curious astrological table for calculating the length of life of any individual The notion of the world centred on the sacred Kaaba in Mecca inspired both astronomers and proponents of folk astronomy to propose methods for finding the qibla or sacred direction towards the Kaaba their activities are surveyed here The interaction between the mathematical and folk traditions in astronomy is then illustrated by an 11th century text on the qibla in Transoxania The last three studies deal with an account of the geodetic measurements sponsored by the Caliph al Ma'mun in the 9th century a world map in the tradition of the 11th century polymath al-Biruni alas corrupted by careless copying and a table of geographical coordinates from 15th century Egypt

Shahab Ahmed, 2017-10-31 A bold new conceptualization of Islam that reflects its contradictions and rich diversity What is Islam How do we grasp a human and historical phenomenon characterized by such variety and contradiction What is Islamic about Islamic philosophy or Islamic art Should we speak of Islam or of islams Should we distinguish the Islamic the religious from the Islamicate the cultural Or should we abandon Islamic altogether as an analytical term In What Is Islam Shahab Ahmed presents a bold new conceptualization of Islam that challenges dominant understandings grounded in the categories of religion and culture or those that privilege law and scripture He argues that these modes of thinking obstruct us from understanding Islam distorting it diminishing it and rendering it incoherent What Is Islam formulates a new conceptual language for analyzing Islam It presents a new paradigm of how Muslims have historically understood divine revelation one that enables us to understand how and why Muslims through history have embraced values such as exploration ambiguity aestheticization polyvalence and relativism as well as practices such as figural art music and even wine drinking as Islamic It also puts forward a new understanding of the historical constitution of Islamic law and its relationship to philosophical ethics and political theory A book that is certain to provoke debate and significantly alter our understanding of Islam What Is Islam reveals how Muslims have historically conceived of and lived with Islam as norms and truths that are at once contradictory yet coherent Encyclopedia of Gender and Society Jodi O'Brien, 2009 Provides timely comparative analysis from internationally known contributors Islamization and Archaeology José C. Carvajal López, 2023-05-04 This fresh approach to the study of Islamization proposes an innovative conceptual framework that treats the subject as a particular case of cultural change The aim of the volume is to make Islamization amenable to archaeological and historical analyses of changes in material conditions of life without forsaking the specific history of Islam Islam and Islamization must be understood in their particular social context but also in relation to the conditions that hold them together over large geographical and chronological expanses Archaeologists and historians have considered Islamization from a range of different perspectives from conversion to cultural change though these studies have tended to be underpinned by a normativist conception of Islam In contrast Jos C Carvajal Lopez takes a hermeneutical stance wherein Islam is the result of exploration and adopts a New Materialist theoretical analysis to explore Islamization and its impact on identities communities and their material culture The consequences for the study of Islamization are examined through examples that include some of the author's own experiences This innovative take on Islamization is not exclusively interested in the spread of the religion or of the polity and therefore it overcomes the theoretical limits imposed by the concepts of religious conversion and ideological imposition This book will appeal to scholars interested in associating cultural and religious change and in particular those working on Islam whether within or outside the discipline of archaeology

Arab Nationalism B. Tibi, 1997-01-14 The third edition includes a new Part Five on the tensions between Arab nationalism and Islam arising from the crisis of the nation state and of the delegitimation of Pan Arab regimes The effects of the Arab defeat in the Six Day War 1967 and the rise of political Islam in the 1970s are the focus of the new part The background of the analysis of the impact and function of nationalism and its contribution to social and political change in the Third World taking the rise of nationalism in the Middle East as a historical example Professor Tibi concentrates on the period after the First World War when many Arab intellectuals became disillusioned with Britain and France as a result of the occupation of their countries One focus of this study are the writings and influence of Sati al Husri on Middle Eastern politics Professor Tibi illustrates the connection between modern Arab nationalism and nineteenth century German Romantic nationalism which will be of particular interest to the English reader Professor Tibi concludes that while nationalism has played a necessary and important role in the movement for national independence in the Middle East it has since developed into an ideology which seems to obstruct further social and political emancipation This third edition brought completely up to date
