

The background of the slide is a photograph of a desk. On the left, there is a stack of several old, thick books with worn spines. In the foreground, slightly to the right, is a black and white photograph of a landscape, possibly a mountain range, with a white border. The overall lighting is soft and warm, suggesting an indoor setting with natural light. A dark blue vertical bar is on the far left edge of the slide.

the Heart of Things Richard P. Blackmur,1989 The Theory of the Avant-garde Renato Poggioli,1968 Convinced that all aspects of modern culture have been affected by avant garde art Renato Poggioli explores the relationship between the avant garde and civilization Historical parallels and modern examples from all the arts are used to show how the avant garde is both symptom and cause of many major extra aesthetic trends of our time and that the contemporary avant garde is the sole and authentic one Jewish Biblical Interpretation: Medieval and Modern Michael Fishbane ,2024-07-17

Following his first wide ranging collection on biblical text and exegetical culture Michael Fishbane supplements his previous investigations with this second volume of collected writings It includes close studies in medieval Jewish liturgical poetry Jewish biblical exegesis plain sense allegorical sense philosophical and mystical senses and modern Jewish thought traditional especially Hasidic literature as well as modern Jewish theology Emphasizing the varieties of Jewish exegetical culture and the interplay between culture text and theology each study is intended to be paradigmatic for a particular cultural or literary subject and includes many comparative examples while placing special emphasis on hermeneutical and expository matters The Interpretation of Otherness Giles Gunn,1979-02-15 In a unique and probing analysis this study examines the function of literary criticism in religious studies and explores the relation of literature to religion in the works of major American writers

The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature: Volume 4, 1900-1950 George Watson,I. R. Willison,1972-12-07 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 4 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries The Near and Distant God Ian Cooper,2008 This book shows that a major strand in the development of modern poetry in German and English can be seen as a protracted response to the religious crises of post Idealist thought It focuses on the hermeneutic dimension of Die Religion Poetry and the Religious Imagination Francesca Bugliani Knox, David Lonsdale, 2016-04-22 What is the role of spiritual experience in poetry What are the marks of a religious imagination How close can the secular and the religious be brought together How do poetic imagination and religious beliefs interact Exploring such questions through the concept of the religious imagination this book integrates interdisciplinary research in the area of poetry on the one hand and theology philosophy and Christian spirituality on the other Established theologians philosophers literary critics and creative writers explain by way of contemporary and historical examples the primary role of the religious imagination in the writing as well as in the reading of poetry German Poetry Martin Swales, 1987-02-27 The works of seventeen German poets from the mid eighteenth century to the present are supplemented by brief notes and an introductory essay on the history and nature of lyric poetry
