The Hearing Trumpet:

The Hearing Trumpet Leonora Carrington, 2021-01-05 An old woman enters into a fantastical world of dreams and nightmares in this surrealist classic admired by Björk and Luis Buñuel Leonora Carrington painter playwright and novelist was a surrealist trickster par excellence and The Hearing Trumpet is the witty celebratory key to her anarchic and allusive body of work The novel begins in the bourgeois comfort of a residential corner of a Mexican city and ends with a man made apocalypse that promises to usher in the earth's rebirth In between we are swept off to a most curious old age home run by a self improvement cult and drawn several centuries back in time with a cross dressing Abbess who is on a quest to restore the Holy Grail to its rightful owner the Goddess Venus Guiding us is one of the most unexpected heroines in twentieth century literature a nonagenarian vegetarian named Marian Leatherby who as Olga Tokarczuk writes in her afterword is hard of hearing but full of life

Surrealism, Feminism, Psychoanalysis Natalya Lusty, 2017-03-02 How did women Surrealists such as Leonora Carrington and Claude Cahun take up the question of female identity in terms of their own aesthetic and intellectual practice What was the response of women analysts such as Joan Riviere to Freud's psychoanalytic construction of femininity These are among the questions that Natalya Lusty brings to her sophisticated and theoretically informed investigation into the appropriation of the feminine by the Surrealist movement Combining biographical and textual methods of analysis with historically specific discussions of related cultural sites such as women's magazines fashion debutante culture sexology modernist lesbian subculture pornography and female criminality the book examines the ambiguities and blind spots that haunt the work of more central figures such as André Breton Georges Bataille Jacques Lacan Walter Benjamin and the Surrealist photographer Hans Bellmer Lusty's examination of a series of psychoanalytic Surrealist themes including narcissism fantasy masquerade perversion and the double illuminates a modernist preoccupation with the crisis of subjectivity and representation and its ongoing relevance to more recent work by Cindy Sherman and Judith Butler Her book is an important contribution to modernist studies that will appeal to scholars and students working across a diverse range of fields including literary studies gender studies visual culture cultural studies and cultural history
