Sister And Brother Lesbians And Gay Men Write About Their Lives Together:

Sister & Brother Joan Nestle, John Preston, 1994 Gay Masculinities Peter M. Nardi, 1999-11-30 Without question the media have perpetuated stereotypes of gay men often portraying them as effeminate Such a limited depiction illustrates the problematic conflation of gender roles and sexual orientation raising important questions about the relationship between the two The articles collected in this volume represent an attempt to understand how contemporary gay men in the United States engage in contest and modify controlling notions of masculinity Peter Nardi with contributions from leading scholars in the field of gay studies examines the ways in which gay men develop a sense of masculine identity with a special emphasis on the every day lives of gay men These essays consider a great range of issues from gay masculine identity in business church home and community to interpersonal relationships of gay men A fascinating and thought provoking addition to the Research on Men and Masculinities series Gay Masculinities is a must read for any scholar of sociology gender studies education anthropology psychology or communication Between Gay and Straight Lisa M. Tillmann-Healy, 2001-04-26 It started as a class project a young married small town white woman interviewing a gay acquaintance and his circle of friends From this developed a three year exploration of the complexities of carrying on gay straight friendships This reflexive thoughtful and compellingly written study moves from gay bars to softball leagues to visits with families and friends both gay and straight During its course the author develops a growing understanding of the differences between the two communities the difficulties of developing bonds across groups and the inherent rewards of seeking and being the Other in contemporary society She explores sexuality marriage lifestyles and the meanings of friendship culminating in a boisterous dissertation defense attended by her new community of friends As a study of a gay community a narrative of personal development and change and an exploration of the use of friendship in conducting research that transforms both participants and researcher Tillmann Healy s work will be compelling reading for scholars students and the broader community Who's who in Contemporary Gay and Lesbian History Robert Aldrich, Garry Wotherspoon, 2002 A comprehensive modern biographical survey of homosexuality in the modern world containing more than 500 entries City Of Sisterly And Brotherly Loves Marc Stein, 2004 Describes that Philadelphians were leaders in the national gay and lesbian movement and suggests that New York and San Francisco have for too long obscured the contributions of other cities to gay culture This book brings to life the neighborhood bars and clubs where people gathered and the political issues that rallied the community A Fragile Union Joan Nestle, 2018-01-02 A Fragile Union is Joan Nestle s collection of intimate essays and narratives about lesbian sexuality butch femme relationships sex writing the importance of preserving lesbian and gay history the love between lesbians and gay men and the often shaky camaraderie among lesbians that as community continues to flex its diversity Longtime readers of Nestle s writings are familiar with her themes of unity and difference In A Fragile Union Nestle delves still deeper Living with cancer Nestle explores other fragile unions the fragility of her sexual desire in the face of her illness the fragility of memory in the face of loss and always in the face of fear her belief in the possibility of hope her love for her people women lesbians and gays working class and all who struggle against injustice Who's Who in Lesbian and Gay Writing Gabriele Griffin,2003-09-02 A lively and accessible guide to lesbian and gay literary culture Featuring authors of works with lesbian or gay content as well as known lesbian and gay writers it offers an invaluable guide to a rich and varied literary culture

OutWrite Julie R. Enszer,Elena Gross,2022-03-18 Running from 1990 to 1999 the annual OutWrite conference played a pivotal role in shaping LGBTQ literary culture in the United States and its emerging canon OutWrite provided a space where literary lions who had made their reputations before the gay liberation movement like Edward Albee John Rechy and Samuel R Delany could mingle network and flirt with a new generation of emerging queer writers like Tony Kushner Alison Bechdel and Sarah Schulman This collection gives readers a taste of this fabulous moment in LGBTQ literary history with twenty seven of the most memorable speeches from the OutWrite conference including both keynote addresses and panel presentations These talks are drawn from a diverse array of contributors including Allen Ginsberg Judy Grahn Essex Hemphill Patrick Califia Dorothy Allison Allan Gurganus Chrystos John Preston Linda Villarosa Edmund White and many more OutWrite offers readers a front row seat to the passionate debates nascent identity politics and provocative ideas that helped animate queer intellectual and literary culture in the 1990s Covering everything from racial representation to sexual politics the still relevant topics in these talks are sure to strike a chord with today s readers Mother Troubles Julia

Hanigsberg,1999-08-01 A marvelous collection unified by its determination to speak on behalf of mothers assailed by government policies social institutions and a culture of mother blaming These essays open the way for more direct compassionate respectful and constructive responses to the dilemmas facing families and mothers Alison M Jaggard author of Feminist Politics and Human Nature

Bisexual Spaces Clare Hemmings,2013-11-12 A largely unexplored area this is an innovative and original examination of bisexual spaces as places that are defined by both geographical boundaries and cultural significance Hemmings applies the ideas of queer theory as well as social and cultural geography in her fascinating investigation into the spaces and places of bisexual life Specifically focusing on Northhampton MA and San Francisco she draws on interviews with community members and the town histories showing how and why they have developed into safe places for the gay lesbian and bisexual communities By mapping out a space of bisexuality Bisexual Spaces provides a new and provocative understanding of the concept Writing African American Women Elizabeth A. Beaulieu,2006-04-30

Women have had a complex experience in African American culture The first work of its kind this encyclopedia approaches African American literature from a Women s Studies perspective While Yolanda Williams Page s Encyclopedia of African American Women Writers provides biographical entries on more than 150 literary figures this book is much broader in scope Included are several hundred alphabetically arranged entries on African American women writers as well as on male writers who have treated women in their works Entries on genres periods themes characters historical events texts places and other
