Keywords in Writing Studies Paul Heilker, John Vandenberg, 2015-02-15 Keywords in Writing Studies is an exploration of the principal ideas and ideals of an emerging academic field as they are constituted by its specialized vocabulary A sequel to the 1996 work Keywords in Composition Studies this new volume traces the evolution of the field's lexicon taking into account the wide variety of theoretical educational professional and institutional developments that have redefined it over the past two decades Contributors address the development transformation and interconnections among thirty six of the most critical terms that make up writing studies Looking beyond basic definitions or explanations they explore the multiple layers of meaning within the terms that writing scholars currently use exchange and question Each term featured is a part of the general disciplinary parlance and each is a highly contested focal point of significant debates about matters of power identity and values Each essay begins with the assumption that its central term is important precisely because its meaning is open and multiplex Keywords in Writing Studies reveals how the key concepts in the field are used and even challenged rather than advocating particular usages and the particular vision of the field that they imply The volume will be of great interest to both graduate students and established scholars

A Writing Center Practitioner's Inquiry into Collaboration Georganne Nordstrom, 2021-02-01 This book presents a model of Practitioner Inquiry PI as a systematic form of empirical research and provides a rationale for its suitability within a writing center context Exploring the potential of writing centers as pedagogical sites that support research the book offers an accessible model that guides both research and practice for writing center practitioners while offering flexibility to account for their distinct contexts of practice Responding to the increasing call in the field to produce empirical RAD replicable aggregable data driven research the author explores Practitioner Inquiry through explication of methodology and methods a revisitation of collaboration to guide both practice and research and examples of application of the model Nordstrom grounds this research and scholarship in Hawai'i's context and explores Indigenous concepts and approaches to inform an ethical collaborative practice Offering significant contributions to empirical research in the fields of writing center studies composition and education this book will be of great relevance to writing center practitioners anyone conducting empirical research and researchers working in tutor professionalization collaboration translingual literacy practices and research methodologies

Conversational Interaction in Second Language Acquisition A. D. Cohen, Ernesto Macaro, 2013-05-20 Provides a unique and timely re-examination of key issues such as strategies in context strategy instruction and strategy research methods by numerous experts in the field Offers an invaluable overview of what is known from empirical research about listening reading speaking writing vocabulary and grammar strategies Proposes a clear and focused research agenda for the next decades Research into language learner strategies has the fundamental goal of improving the teaching and learning of second languages This book explores the notion that the reason some learners of second languages excel and others struggle lies in what the learners themselves do the strategies they bring to language learning and to language use Empirical Research and Writing Leanne C. Powner, 2014-11-04 Students can easily misstep when they first begin to do research Leanne C Powner's new title Empirical Research and Writing A Student's Practical Guide provides valuable advice and guidance on conducting and writing about empirical research Chapter by chapter students are guided through the key steps in the research process Written in a lively and engaging manner and with a dose of humor this practical text shows students exactly how to choose a research topic conduct a literature review make research design decisions collect and analyze data and then write up and present the results The book's approachable style and just in time information delivery make it a text students will want to read and its wide ranging and surprisingly sophisticated coverage will make it an important resource for their later coursework

Engaging Research Communities in Writing Studies Johanna Phelps, 2021-04-20 This book invites readers to reconsider how writing studies researchers work with Institutional Review Boards IRBs on behalf of their communities and argues that engaging with IRBs during the research design process helps practitioners conduct research more quickly and effectively Using empirical data from both writing studies and extra disciplinary contexts Dr Johanna Phelps presents findings from two discipline wide studies as well as metadata from two IRBs to develop a principled engagement framework for writing studies researchers to interact with their communities Phelps further examines the many facets of conducting research with human participants from comprehending federal policy updates to pondering specific ethical issues to developing detailed research designs and explores the confluence of ethics policy and methodology in a thoroughgoing philosophical investigation of writing studies as a public good This engaging and timely exploration of research design will be an important resource for scholars and students of writing studies rhetoric and composition technical and professional communication cultural rhetoric literacy studies research design research methodologies research ethics IRBs justice and critical theory Chapter 4 and Interchapter 4 of this book are freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at https://www.taylorfrancis.com/chapters/oa-mono/10.4324/9781003082002_9 under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license Chapter 6 and Interchapter 6 of this book are freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at https://www.taylorfrancis.com/chapters/oa-mono/10.4324/9781003082002_13 under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license Self-regulated Learning and Second Language Writing Lin Sophie Teng, 2022-05-30 This monograph is to investigate practical applications and contributions of self regulated learning SRL to second foreign language L2 writing from sociocognitive and sociocultural perspectives It showcases a comprehensive and updated review of conceptual and methodological issues of SRL and the state of the art research on its applications to L2 learning and teaching This volume further elaborates the design and results of a large scale project which conducts observational and intervention studies investigating SRL strategies in L2 writing This book reveals that a cross disciplinary understanding of SRL strategies plays a crucial role in advancing theoretical functions of SRL and in extending its applications to L2 education in general and L2 writing in particular This book makes significant contributions to developing and validating new conceptual frameworks and tools for evaluating multidimensional structures of SRL strategies and self efficacy in L2 writing elucidating the interplay of personal behavioral environmental and psychological factors with SRL strategies and writing performance and presenting an effective self regulation instructional model for nurturing L2 learners motivation and confidence to strategize reflect and succeed in writing Teng has established herself as one of the prominent scholars in the discussion of self regulated learning strategies Her contribution to the fields of L2 writing and strategic learning are undeniable This monograph is an excellent showing of how her endeavors to bring established theories from educational psychology to applied writing research have progressed over a number of methodologically rigorous studies It should be required reading for anyone with an interest in cultivating strategic writers not only in the Chinese context but worldwide Nathan Thomas UCL Institute of Education
