Stone, Christopher Wright, 2006-09-27 This timely book offers the first critical examination of World Bank policy reforms and initiatives during the past decade. The World Bank is viewed as one of the most powerful international organizations of our time. The authors critically analyze the influence of the institution's policy and engagement during the past decade in a variety of issue areas including human rights, domestic reform, and the environment. The World Bank and Governance delves into the bowels of the World Bank, exploring its organizational structure, professional culture, and bureaucratic procedures, illustrating how these shape its engagement with an increasingly complex, diverse, and challenging operational environment. The book includes chapters on two under-researched divisions of the World Bank: the International Finance Corporation and the Multilateral Investment Guarantee Agency. Several illuminating country studies are also included, analyzing the World Bank's activities in Argentina, Bolivia, Lebanon, Hungary, and Vietnam. This volume will be of great interest to students and scholars of international relations, development, politics, and economics. The Politics of Fiscal Policy Formation Lawrence C. Pierce, 1971 The Political Economy of Exchange Rate Policy-Making S. Kettell, 2004-05-28 Steven Kettell analyzes the development of exchange rate policymaking from a Marxist perspective. He examines and provides a new means of understanding three key policymaking episodes in Britain: the return to the gold standard in 1925, membership of the European Exchange Rate Mechanism from 1990-1992, and the possibility of joining the Single European Currency. The alternative means of understanding these policy episodes provides a basis for making wider generalizations about the political economy of exchange rate policymaking. Economic Research Relevant to the Formulation of National Urban Development Strategies James Douglas McCallum, Lowdon Wingo, Wilbur Thompson, H.W. Richardson, Joel Bergsman, Peter Greenston, Robert Healy, Edwin S. Mills, Alan W. Evans, 2017-09-29 Originally published in 1971, this volume contains papers invited for a conference on economic research relevant to national urban development held in September of the same year. The conference pulled together researchers from both the United Kingdom and the United States who were interested in economic research on key issues of both countries' management of their urban areas. Papers are varied from those in the early stages of research to those whose research has been completed, and all provide an insight into the increase of urbanisation present in the first world.
