Strengthening Capacity Ngos:

Improving Capacity for Stabilization and Reconstruction Operations Nora Bensahel, Olga Oliker, Heather Peterson, 2009-04-03 U S experiences in Iraq and Afghanistan have demonstrated that improving U S capacity for stabilization and reconstruction operations is critical to national security The authors recommend building civilian rather than military capacity realigning and reforming existing agencies and funding promising programs They also suggest improvements to deployable police capacity crisis management processes and guidance and funding Strengthening the Public-private Partnership Patricia L. Jordan, 1996 Aid Effectiveness and Capacity Development: Implications for Economic Growth in Developing Countries Prabuddha Sanyal and Suresh Babu, Building NGO/CBO Capacity, 2003

Terminal evaluation of “Strengthening capacity for climate change adaptation through support to integrated watershed management in Lesotho” Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, 2021-10-07 Climate change variability has impacts on Lesotho s wetlands which are host to a significant portion of the country s predominately agricultural economy Intervening in this sector could potentially increase food security and reduce poverty FAO was called upon to implement sustainable land and water management practices and resource conservation in an effort to reduce the affected communities vulnerability while increasing their capacity to adapt to the effects of climate change The evaluation found the project to be effective in improving the livelihoods and quality of life of the affected communities It has been particularly relevant to Lesotho s national priorities focusing on sustainable land management and drought management Future projects should place more attention on gender issues particularly showcasing how women s livelihoods have been improved by FAO intervention OECD Public Governance Reviews Innovative Capacity and Participatory Policymaking in Armenia OECD, 2024-12-13 The assessment report explores capacity for innovative and participatory policymaking at the national government level in Armenia to understand how innovation and participation can be better supported and harnessed to improve the public sector s effectiveness and impact It looks at current innovative and participatory efforts identifies gaps and proposes steps Armenia can take to accelerate innovative and participatory policymaking Improving Aid Effectiveness in Global Health Elvira Beracochea, 2015-09-04 This direct accessible guide uses a human rights perspective to define effectiveness in aid delivery and offer a robust framework for creating sustainable health programs and projects and assessing their progress Geared toward hands on professionals in such critical areas as food aid maternal health and disease control it lays out challenges and solutions related to funding planning and complexity as individual projects feed into and impact larger health and development systems Contributors clarify optimum roles of government academia NGOs community organizations and the private sector in aid delivery to inspire readers broader and deeper uses of teamwork communication and imagination Throughout the guiding principles of justice equity and respect that underlie foundational documents such as the Millennium Declaration inform this visionary work Included in the coverage Assessing the effectiveness of health projects Scaling up of high impact interventions Aid effectiveness and private sector health organizations When charity destroys dignity and sustainability Effective conversations in global health projects Lessons from the field on sustainability and effectiveness For professionals in global health and development Aid Effectiveness in Global Health is a trusted and encouraging mentor This volume gives its readers the necessary logistical and attitudinal tools to bring about lasting change and shows how to use them meaningfully in both the short term and the long run Capacity Development for Education for All Faccini, Benedict, Salzano, Carmela, 2011-12-31 NGOs and Capacity Building, 1998 Better Aid Civil Society and Aid Effectiveness Findings, Recommendations and Good Practice OECD, 2010-02-03 This book is a resource for implementing the recommendations on civil society and aid effectiveness emerging from the Accra High Level Forum and its preparatory process Foreign Operations, Export Financing, and Related Programs Appropriations for 2004 United States. Congress. House. Committee on Appropriations. Subcommittee on Foreign Operations, Export Financing, and Related Programs, 2003 MYCDCGP - National Strategic Plan on HIV and AIDS (2011-2015) Bahagian Kawalan Penyakit, Kementerian Kesihatan Malaysia, Improving Global Environmental Governance Norichika Kanie, Steinar Andresen, Peter M. Haas, 2013-10-30 The experience of environmental governance is approached in Improving Global Environmental Governance from the unique perspective of actor configuration and embedded networks of actors which are areas of emerging importance The chapters look at existing Multilateral Environmental Agreements MEAs and the broader constellation of partially networked institutions to better understand the involvement of individual actors and how to deepen the networks that include them to generate more effective governance The book covers a wide range of issues pertaining to environmental governance including trans boundary air pollution marine pollution biodiversity and ozone depletion It also examines partnerships as a hybrid case of emerging modes of environmental governance These partnerships are a recent form of actor configuration that warrant attention for dealing with global environmental threats in order to better understand the full potential of actor configurations in the absence of state involvement In order to test applicability to on going but stalled processes the book applies the approach to one of the most difficult issues we face climate change By addressing key questions in this important area the book provides new perspectives in the nexus between agency and architecture in environmental governance in the twenty first century Non-Governmental Organizations - Role and Performance in Turbulent Times Mária Murray Svidroňová, 2024-08-21 The book is focused on the third sector including civil society organizations hereinafter referred to as non governmental organizations NGOs and their participation in governance especially in times of crisis The book's broad objective is to explore the role that NGOs play independently and in collaboration with government institutions and private firms in defining shaping and achieving the public good The focus is on NGOs that help to overcome the influence of recent crises including the COVID 19 pandemic and the war in Ukraine The book presents various examples of NGOs assisting in developing new services for refugees and other victims of the recent crises in developed as well as in developing countries The book answers the questions of how NGOs deal with migration human rights environmental issues polarization democracy and resilience in these turbulent times

Displacement and Resettlement in India Hari Mohan Mathur,2013-07-18 In the past ten years or so displacement by development projects has gone on almost untamed under the globalization pressures to meet the demand for land from local and increasingly foreign investors Focusing on India this book looks at the complex issue of resettling people who are displaced for the sake of development The book discusses how the affected farming communities are fiercely opposing the development projects that often leave them worse off than before and how this conflict is a matter of serious concern for the planners as it could discourage potential capital inflows and put India's growth trajectory into jeopardy It analyses the challenge of protecting the interests of farmers and at the same time ensuring that these issues do not hinder the path of development The book goes on to highlight the emerging approaches to resettlement that promise a more equitable development outcome A timely analysis of displacement and resettlement this book has an appeal beyond South Asian Studies alone It is of interest to policy makers planners administrators and scholars in the field of resettlement and development studies

Bangladesh International Monetary Fund. African Dept.,2012-10-31 Poverty Reduction Strategy Papers are prepared by member countries in broad consultation with stakeholders and development partners including the staffs of the World Bank and the IMF Updated with annual progress reports they describe the countries macroeconomic structural and social policies in support of growth and poverty reduction as well as associated external financing needs and major sources of financing This country document for Bangladesh is being available on the IMF website by agreement of the member country as a service to users of the IMF website

Stakeholders Ian Smillie,2013-11-05 This unique study from the OECD Development Centre presents a comprehensive review by independent experts of the relationships and division of responsibility between the 22 member governments of the OECD Development Assistance Committee DAC and NGOs from these donor countries working in international development Additional chapters cover the roles of the European Union and the World Bank Among other themes the book looks at two very significant issues First at the way in which an overemphasis on evaluation may be leading NGOs to focus purely on measuring their output thus choosing activities which are easily accountable Second it examines the important impacts of the evolution in the funding relationship between governments and NGOs from matching grants to contracts where NGOs must increasingly compete for contracts

Technical Assistance to the Islamic Republic of Pakistan for Institutional Strengthening for Government-NGO Cooperation ,2000

Congressional Presentation, Foreign Operations ,1996

The Challenges of Nongovernmental Organisations in Anglophone Cameroon Lotsmart N. Fonjong,2007 It is widely recognised that non governmental organisations NGOs have undertaken an increasingly important role in both human development and environmental conservation efforts in the less developed nations during the past three decades Much of the literature on NGOs focuses on or is sponsored by large Western based international NGOs which themselves undertake or direct many of the development and conservation efforts This book cuts through sensitive subjects including government corruption and manipulation the misuse of NGOs and the limitations of small under funded local development organisations to identify the crucial role of local NGOs in the challenging context of rural development in Sub Saharan African His observations and insights are highly useful and provide important contextual understanding for future human development and environment conservation projects in rural African settings
