Mbogoni,2018-12-07 Throughout the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries the colonial administrations in British East Central African colonies considered inter racial sexual liaisons to be a serious and recurrent problem Consequently inter racial sexual liaisons concubinage and marriage and the mixed race progeny that resulted from these liaisons led to protracted discussions and enactment of policies which addressed questions about concubinage marriage racial identity sexual morality and the status of persons of mixed race in British East Central Africa Using archival sources and secondary literature the author highlights how colonial inter racial intimate encounters became intertwined with conceptions of race and what it meant to be European African native and racially mixed Intended for students and scholars interested in the study of race and sexuality in colonial Africa the book will provide an understanding of why inter racial liaisons despite of rigid racial barriers were not easy to legislate against Strike a blow and die: a narrative of race relations in colonial Africa, ed George Simeon Mwase,Robert I. Rotberg, Dictionary of African Historical Biography Mark R. Lipschutz,R. Kent Rasmussen,1986 The acclaimed Dictionary of African Historical Biography the only single volume biographical work on Sub Saharan African history has been expanded and updated to include entries on over eight hundred people important in Sub Saharan African history up to 1980 History of the Zambia Baptist Association 1905-2005 L.

Frey,2020-11-17 Much good academic work has been done on the mainline churches in many African countries But less so on the smaller missions and the churches that they founded This book describes the history of one of the smaller churches the Zambia Baptist Association with its roots in Malawi 1905 and its missionary connections to England South Africa Sweden Australia and finally to the Liebenzell Mission in Germany It is thus one of the many contributions needed for the writing of a history of the Evangelical churches of Africa None Like Us Stephen Best,2019-01-10 It passes for an unassailable truth that the slave past provides an explanatory prism for understanding the black political present In None Like Us Stephen Best reappraises what he calls melancholy historicism a kind of crime scene investigation in which the forensic imagination is directed toward the recovery of a we at the point of our violent origin Best argues that there is and can be no we following from such a time and place that black identity is constituted in and through negation taking inspiration from David Walker's prayer that none like us may ever live again until time shall be no more Best draws out the connections between a sense of impossible black sociality and strains of negativity that have operated under the sign of queer In None Like Us the art of El Anatsui and Mark Bradford the literature of Toni Morrison and Gwendolyn Brooks even rumors in the archive evidence an apocalyptic aesthetics or self eclipse which opens the circuits between past and present and thus charts a queer future for black study

The Age of Garvey Adam Ewing, 2016-09-13 A groundbreaking exploration of Garveyism's global influence during the interwar years and beyond Jamaican activist Marcus Garvey 1887-1940 organized the Universal Negro Improvement Association in Harlem in 1917 By the early 1920s his program of African liberation and racial uplift had attracted millions of supporters both in the United States and abroad The Age of Garvey presents an expansive global history of the movement that came to be known as Garveyism Offering a groundbreaking new interpretation of global black politics between the First and Second World Wars Adam Ewing charts Garveyism's emergence its remarkable global transmission and its influence in the responses among African descendants to white supremacy and colonial rule in Africa the Caribbean and the United States Delving into the organizing work and political approach of Garvey and his followers Ewing shows that Garveyism emerged from a rich tradition of pan African politics that had established by the First World War lines of communication among black intellectuals on both sides of the Atlantic Garvey's legacy was to reengineer this tradition as a vibrant and multifaceted mass politics Ewing looks at the people who enabled Garveyism's global spread including labor activists in the Caribbean and Central America community organizers in the urban and rural United States millennial religious revivalists in central and southern Africa welfare associations and independent church activists in Malawi and Zambia and an emerging generation of Kikuyu leadership in central Kenya Moving away from the images of quixotic business schemes and repatriation efforts The Age of Garvey demonstrates the consequences of Garveyism's international presence and provides a dynamic and unified framework for understanding the movement during the interwar years and beyond
