

Master strike

The Master strike is an attack from the opposite direction to your opponent's attack within the time window for a Perfect block.

If the enemy is attacking from the left, the moment you can perform a Perfect block, attack from the right.

When your opponent attacks from the right, you counterattack from the left. If he goes for a stab, you counter with an attack from above, and against an enemy attack from above, go for a stab.

Tips

The Master Strike cannot be blocked or otherwise defended against.

The Master Strike can only be performed with a sword, or in combination with a shield.

By attacking into the zone where your opponent's sword is, you increase his chances of executing a Perfect Block. Attacking from the opposite zone risks a Master Strike from him.
