His Truth Is Marching On Jon Meacham, 2021-09-07 1 NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER An intimate and revealing portrait of civil rights icon and longtime U S congressman John Lewis linking his life to the painful quest for justice in America from the 1950s to the present from the Pulitzer Prize winning author of The Soul of America An extraordinary man who deserves our everlasting admiration and gratitude The Washington Post ONE OF THE WASHINGTON POST AND COSMOPOLITAN S BEST BOOKS OF THE YEAR John Lewis who at age twenty five marched in Selma Alabama and was beaten on the Edmund Pettus Bridge was a visionary and a man of faith Drawing on decades of wide ranging interviews with Lewis Jon Meacham writes of how this great grandson of a slave and son of an Alabama tenant farmer was inspired by the Bible and his teachers in nonviolence Reverend James Lawson and Martin Luther King Jr to put his life on the line in the service of what Abraham Lincoln called the better angels of our nature From an early age Lewis learned that nonviolence was not only a tactic but a philosophy a biblical imperative and a transforming reality At the age of four Lewis ambitious to become a minister practiced by preaching to his family's chickens. When his mother cooked one of the chickens, the boy refused to eat it. His first act, he wryly recalled, of nonviolent protest. Integral to Lewis's commitment to bettering the nation was his faith in humanity and in God and an unshakable belief in the power of hope. Meacham calls Lewis as important to the founding of a modern and multiethnic twentieth and twenty-first century America as Thomas Jefferson and James Madison and Samuel Adams were to the initial creation of the Republic itself in the eighteenth century. A believer in the injunction that one should love one's neighbor as oneself, Lewis was arguably a saint in our time, risking limb and life to bear witness for the powerless in the face of the powerful. In many ways, he brought a still evolving nation closer to realizing its ideals, and his story offers inspiration and illumination for Americans today who are working for social and political change. Emma's Postcard Album Faith Mitchell, 2022-12-21. BCALA 2023 Outstanding Contribution to Publishing Citation Award winner. The turn of the twentieth century was an extraordinarily difficult period for African Americans, a time of unchecked lynchings, mob attacks, and rampant Jim Crow segregation. During these bleak years, Emma Crawford, a young African American woman living in Pennsylvania, corresponded by postcard with friends and family members and collected the cards she received from all over the country. Her album, spanning from 1906 to 1910 and analyzed in Emma's Postcard Album, becomes an entry point into a deeply textured understanding of the nuances and complexities of African American lives and the survival strategies that enabled people to make a way from no way. As snippets of lived experience, eye-catching visual images, and reflections of historical moments, the cards in the collection become sources for understanding not only African American life but also broader American history and culture. In Emma's Postcard Album, Faith Mitchell innovatively places the contents of this postcard collection into specific historic and biographical contexts and provides a new interpretation of postcards as life writings, a much neglected aspect of scholarship. Through these techniques, a riveting world that is far too little known is revealed, and new insights are gained into the perspectives and experience of African Americans. Capping off these contributions, the text is a visual feast illustrated with arresting images from the Golden Age of postcards, as well as newspaper clippings and other archival material. Theology in the Mode of Monk: An Aesthetics of Barth and Cone on Revelation and Freedom, Volume 1 Raymond Carr, 2024-11-07. This captivating study engages two of the most influential theologians of the twentieth century: Karl Barth, the Swiss Protestant theologian who constructed his theology from above and engaged the powers in the background of Nazi Germany, and James H. Cone, the father of Black Theology in America, who constructed his theology from below and confronted white racism, the most intractable issue in America's history. In this three-volume project, Carr employs the aesthetic thinking of the jazz legend Thelonious Monk to reconceptualize, restructure, and advance the theologies of Barth and Cone. This first volume appeals to the Bebop tune Epistrophy as the analogical framework for reconceptualizing the historical form and hermeneutical backgrounds of Karl Barth and James H. Cone. Monk's mode of musical thinking establishes the aesthetic theological architecture Carr uses to reiterate and reimagine the revolutionary theological contributions of Barth and Cone California. Court of Appeal (2nd Appellate District). Records and Briefs California (State)., Received document entitled EXHIBITS VOLUME I
