Terrestrial Things:

Terrestrial Things Ingrid De Kok,2002 Ingrid de Kok is arguably the most lucid and composed voice in contemporary South African English poetry Terrestrial Things is her third volume In it she brings her art to the great dramas of our time the burden revealed in the tragic Truth and Reconciliation Commission hearings and the ceaseless ravaging of the AIDS pandemic Two other parts of the work provide wider perspectives one is focused on the formative family bonds and the landscapes of childhood the other brings her love of Italy to life A work of great courage the book grants us the possibility of sustaining the emotional freight of our place and time without breakdown Anchored in the personal life its dark central vision is carefully framed and steadied by the resources of poetry in the hands of a fine and mature talent A plea in behalf of Swedenborg's claim to intercourse with the spiritual world, compiled from his writings George Bush,1848

Earths in Our Solar System Which Are Called Planets and Earths in the Starry Heaven Their Inhabitants and the Spirits and Angels There Emanuel Swedenborg,1910-01-01 The New Church Repository and Monthly Review ,1848 The English of Savitri Shraddhavan,2015-02-24 Since 1980 Shraddhavan has been teaching English in Auroville through close readings of Sri Aurobindo's revelatory epic Savitri a legend and a symbol In August 1998 these classes were resumed at Savitri Bhavan with a growing number of students including young Tamil teacher trainees from the Arul Vazhi School located in Promesse Auroville These classes were given the name The English of Savitri and they concluded in May of 2009 as this group reached the end of the poem This book is based on the transcripts of a new series of classes given by Shraddhavan between August 2009 and October 2010 which have been edited for conciseness and clarity while aiming to preserve some of the informal atmosphere of the course Edited transcripts of these classes began to be published serially in the Bhavan's journal of Study Notes on Savitri Invocation from issue 32 onwards since it was felt that they may be of interest to a wider audience They are now being published in book form in several volumes by Yukta Prakashan publishers of Vadodara This suggested the idea of collecting the original English articles into a book form as well This is the first such volume covering all the five cantos of Book One of the poem The Book of Beginnings Reincarnation in Philo of Alexandria Sami Yli-Karjanmaa,2015-12-30 The best current research on Philo's allegorical exegesis of Scripture The strong element of Greek philosophy in Philo's thought has been recognized since antiquity but his relation to the Pythagorean Platonic tenet of reincarnation has been a neglected even avoided topic in research This book confirms the view common in the seventeenth to nineteenth centuries that Philo accepted the doctrine of reincarnation even though he preferred not to speak openly about it The book shows how allegorization enabled Philo to give a reincarnational interpretation to very different scriptural passages Features Highlights the importance of reading Philonic parallel passages together for fuller understanding of Philo's message Discusses the difference between protological and universal allegory in Philo's exegesis of the first chapters of Genesis Introduces new concepts to Philonic research such as the corporealization of the mind the result of transgression and a driving force for reincarnation and monadization the human soul's transformation into pure mind upon salvation A History of Jewish Philosophy in the Middle Ages Colette Sirat,1990-11-30 Jewish medieval philosophy has formed the subject of much research over the past thirty years since the appearance of Gutmann's Philosophies of Judaism resulting in greater understanding and a new need for summation This important work now available in paperback aims to supply that need and devotes ample discussion to the major figures of the period like Saadia Gaon Maimonides Abraham Ibn Ezra and Judah Halevi It also gives much attention to the discussion and presentation of texts by lesser known authors clustering around the greater men and movements letters about art in general and landscape painting in particular and he sets them into a philosophical context The third kind of analysis draws both on Sallis's theoretical writings and on the canonical texts in the philosophy of art Kant Schelling Hegel and Heidegger These analyses present for a wide audience a profound sense of landscape and of the earthly abode of the human
