Terror The West Fights Back:

The Twenty-first Century Confronts Its Gods David J. Hawkin, 2012-02-01 This book penetrates the assumptions of Western technological society and exposes the powers that govern it The contributors argue that it is a mistake to think that religion and belief have been relegated to the private sphere and are no longer important in the public and political domains They assert that the twenty first century has a set of new gods the powers of globalization technology the market and military might that reign alongside those of traditional religions These are the forces to which the modern era has granted ultimacy This book looks at how major religions such as Christianity Islam Judaism Hinduism and Buddhism play an important role in politics and society on both the global and local levels The new gods of technology globalization and war are shown to exacerbate the existing cultural divisions and religious strife that mark our time By understanding the importance of that which is held sacred whether traditional belief or modern practice not acknowledged as belief the contributors help us to comprehend our present situation and challenges Terror! Christopher Dobson, Ronald Payne, 1982 Critical

Practices in International Theory James Der Derian, 2009-01-13 Critical Practices in International Theory brings together for the first time the essays of the leading IR theorist James Der Derian The essays cover a variety of issues central to Der Derian s work including diplomacy alienation terrorism intelligence national security new forms of warfare the role of information technology in international relations poststructuralist theory and the military entertainment media matrix The book includes a framing introduction written for this volume in which Der Derian provides historical and theoretical context for a diverse body of work Discussing his own influences and reflecting upon the development of international theory he advocates a critical pluralist approach to the most pressing problems of world politics Written in the eloquent style that marks out Der Derian as one of the most provocative and innovative thinkers in international relations this collection is essential reading for scholars and students interested in the past present and future of international relations James Der Derian is a Watson Institute research professor of international studies at Brown University where he directs the Global Security Program and the Global Media Project He is the author of many articles and books including the highly acclaimed Virtuous War 2001 2009 Terrorism, World Under Siege S. Legal Instruments in the Fight Against International Terrorism Cyrille J.C.F. Fijnaut, Jan Wouters, Frederik Naert, 2004-06-01 This book finds its origins in a transatlantic colloquium held in the European Parliament in Brussels in May 2002 After an introductory overview of the US and European responses to 9 11 it addresses the main legal aspects of the fight against international terrorism namely police and judicial cooperation including mutual legal assistance extradition and the role of entities like Europol and Eurojust financial initiatives e g by the UN Security Council the FATF and the EU human rights and rule of law issues such as trial by military commissions detention of alleged unlawful combatants and others state of emergency derogations due process the death penalty and privacy and international law aspects inter alia self defence the application of international humanitarian law prisoner of war status the role of the UN in particular the Security Council sanctions and the negotiations on a comprehensive convention on combating terrorism Each topic is considered from a US and from a European perspective

Fighting Terrorism and Drugs Jörg Friedrichs, 2007-09-12 Fighting Terrorism and Drugs is an examination of European states in their fight against terrorism and drugs from the 1960s up to the present day J rg Friedrichs explores what makes large European states willing or unwilling to participate in international police cooperation against terrorism and drugs The book examines forty eight case studies with particular regard to the policy preferences of the four largest and most politically important EU Member States Britain France Germany and Italy The author argues that if a real understanding of international cooperation is to develop it is important to understand what individual states want and why they want it To explain state preferences Friedrichs considers interests institutions and ideas from domestic national and international levels that can affect state preferences either positively or negatively This theoretically coherent book looks at international police cooperation from a truly international perspective and will be of interest to students and scholars of international relations terrorism criminology international law and European integration

Hijacking and Hostages J. Paul D. Taillon, 2002-06-30 Terrorism and its manifestations continue to evolve becoming deadlier and more menacing This study considers the evolution of terrorism since 1968 and how airlines and governments have attempted to deal with this form of violence through a series of nonforce strategies Using historical examples we see how governments particularly the United States attempted to counter politically motivated aerial hijacking with metal detectors legal means and finally in frustration counterviolence operations to subdue terrorists As nations witnessed aerial hijacking and sieges the requirement for paramilitary and military counterterrorist forces became a necessity Through use of examples from Israel Entebbe 1976 West Germany Mogadishu 1977 and Egypt Malta 1985 Taillon concludes that cooperation ranging from shared intelligence to forward base access and observers can provide significant advantages in dealing with low intensity operations He hopes to highlight those key aspects of cooperation at an international level which have at least in part been vital to successful counterterrorist operations in the past and as we witnessed again in the campaign in Afghanistan are destined to remain so in the future

The News Shapers Lawrence C. Soley,1992-04-20 Analysts political scientists scholars and consultants The News Shapers describes the elite club of individuals that the media approach for inside information background or predictions concerning the outcome of still unfolding stories Although they are presented as detached experts Lawrence C Soley uncovers their long histories of partisanship as former government officials or politicians and charges that most of the shapers have no better credentials than the millions of people to whom the news media never turn Soley s findings based on a University of Minnesota study which examined three major networks evening newscasts during 1987 1988 reveal that a small number of white politically conservative men associated with Washington based think tanks former Republican administrations and private East Coast universities virtually monopolize political discourse in the mass media Dispelling the myth of the media s liberal bias Soley discusses the shortcomings of both print and broadcast journalism which lead to selection of partisan news analysts and the effects of their commentaries on foreign and domestic affairs Special attention is given to Henry Kissinger Washington Think Tanks and the media s handling of the conflict with Iraq The News Shapers identifies the experts their past political affiliations and their often thin academic credentials It is highly recommended for scholars in communications journalism and political science as well as for newspaper readers and television news viewers

Western Foreign Fighters Phil Gurski,2016-12-08 A number of recent terrorist attacks were committed by young men and women who had radicalized went to train with IS in the Middle East then returned to their home country to commit acts of violence In this text Phil Gurski examines why some people decide to abandon their homeland to join terrorist groups and whether they pose a significant threat to their societies if they survive and return The focus is on Canadians and other Westerners who see violent Jihad as divine obligation with the intention to challenge the view that foreign fighters are all brainwashed The book first looks at state motivation for resorting to conflict and the nature of war including Jihad It then discusses why Westerners volunteered to join the military in past wars to offer points of comparison before focusing on why some are now going to Iraq and Syria to fight along groups such as Islamic State This includes a thorough discussion of the increasing participation of women and the debates among extremists on whether they can engage in warfare Lastly the threat posed by radicalized fighters when they return home after either training or waging war abroad is examined in detail along with what is done to prevent and counter it Written in an accessible manner by a reputed expert on terrorism and radicalization the text will appeal to anyone seeking to understand why people join terrorist groups and the threats they represent to their homeland

Political Terrorism A.J. Jongman, 2017-07-28 While there is no easy way to define terrorism it may generally be viewed as a method of violence in which civilians are targeted with the objective of forcing a perceived enemy into submission by creating fear demoralization and political friction in the population under attack At one time a marginal field of study in the social sciences terrorism is now very much in center stage The 1970s terrorist attacks by the PLO the Provisional Irish Republican Army the Popular Front for the Liberation of Palestine the Japanese Red Army the Unabomber Aum Shinrikyo Timothy McVeigh the World Trade Center attacks the assault on a school in Russia and suicide bombers have all made the term terrorism an all too common part of our vocabulary This edition of Political Terrorism was originally published in the 1980s well before some of the horrific events noted above This monumental collection of definitions conceptual frameworks paradigmatic formulations and bibliographic sources is being reissued in paperback now as a resource for the expanding community of researchers on the subject of terrorism This is a carefully constructed guide to one of the most urgent issues of the world today When the first edition was originally published Choice noted This extremely useful reference tool should be part of any serious social science collection Chronicles of Culture called it a tremendously comprehensive book about a subject that any who have anything to lose from property to liberty life to limbs should be forewarned against

Terrorism, Media, Liberation John David Slocum, 2005 Historical overview of terrorism and how it has been depicted in the media especially films and television In turn these depictions have shaped terrorist tactics and public reaction to terrorism Provided by publisher

Muslim Youth in the Diaspora Pam Nilan, 2017-02-17 In a world where the term Islam is ever increasingly an inaccurate and insensitive synonym for terrorism it is unsurprising that many Muslim youth in the West struggle for a viable sense of identity This book takes up the hotly debated issue of Muslim youth identity in western countries from the standpoint of popular culture It proposes that in the context of Islamophobia and pervasive moral panic young Muslims frame up their identity in relation to external conditions that only see good and bad Muslims on both sides of the ideological fence between Islam and the West Indeed by attempting to break down the good versus bad Muslim dichotomy that largely derives from western media reports as well as political commentary Muslim Youth in the Diaspora Challenging Extremism through Popular Culture will enlighten the reader It illuminates the way in which diasporic Muslim youth engage with and are affected by the radical Islamist meta narrative It examines their popular culture and online activity their gendered sense of self and much more This original book will be of interest to students and scholars interested in the fields of sociology cultural studies and social anthropology It offers a particular focus on Islam for research in youth studies youth culture political radicalisation and religious identity It will also be relevant to the sector of youth and social work where practitioners seek to build cultural bridges with a new generation

Army, 1985 Horrendous Death, Health, and Well-being Daniel Leviton, 1991 A treatment of the incidence of horrendous death both inadvertent and deliberate which views the phenomenon as the greatest public health problem of modern times The author argues that as man causes such deaths he can also learn to eliminate them by collective action

Terrorism, Drugs & Crime in Europe after 1992 (Routledge Revivals) Richard Clutterbuck, 2013-12-19 First published in 1990 Richard Clutterbuck's fascinating analysis of European security confronts the problems of internal European community frontiers and technological aids in combating terrorism and international crime He looks at what the EC countries have done in the past describes the technology now becoming available and makes radical proposals for airport security fighting drugs and overcoming the intimidation of witnesses and juries Above all he foresees the exciting prospect of the USSR the USA and a united Europe co operating for the first time to overcome the common enemies of terrorism and international crime
