Reveron, Jeffrey Stevenson Murer, 2013-05-13 This volume offers a comprehensive overview of international political violence by bringing together foreign policy experts on several regions who examine conflicts in the Fertile Crescent the Balkans the Post Soviet Region the Himalayas Southeast Asia and sub Saharan Africa With cogent assessments of civil conflicts that threaten to be part of a global jihad each chapter both dissects the historical roots and socio economic causes that catalyze terrorism in those areas as well as posits ways for the United States to meet the myriad of foreign policy challenges posed by the growing threat of contemporary international terrorism Turning Point 9.11 Betty R. Kennedy, 2012 The Fight Against Terrorism and Crisis Management in the Western Balkans Iztok Prezelj, 2008-02-06 Terrorism is not the only threat that causes the emergence of crises The so called crisification of our security environment also seems to be rising due to many other factors Such an environment is generating many crises related to politico military conflicts natural disasters infectious diseases information disruptions ethnic or religious violence and others Many of these crises are completely or nearly completely unexpected and have a strong effect on the security of individual people states and the international community Crisis has become the key word instead of war The awareness of this is partially driven by the growing role of electronic media bringing negative news and reports to nearly all homes and partially by objective technical factors that allow the fast escalation of local crises to the international level Globalization therefore has a strong subjective and objective

impact on the understanding of security
