Infertility around the Globe Marcia Inhorn, Frank van Balen, 2002-05-30 This exceptional collection of essays breaks new ground by examining the global impact of infertility as a major reproductive health issue one that has profoundly affected the lives of countless women and men Based on original research by seventeen internationally acclaimed social scientists it is the first book to investigate the use of reproductive technologies in non Western countries Provocative and incisive it is the most substantial work to date on the subject of infertility With infertility as the lens through which a wide range of social issues is explored the contributors address a far reaching array of topics why infertility has been neglected in population studies how the deeply gendered nature of infertility sets the blame squarely on women s shoulders how infertility and its treatment transform family dynamics and relationships and the distribution of medical and marital power The chapters present informed and sophisticated investigations into cultural perceptions of infertility in numerous countries including China India the nations of sub Saharan Africa Vietnam Costa Rica Egypt Israel the United States and the nations of Europe Poised to become the quintessential reference on infertility from an international social science perspective Infertility around the Globe makes a powerful argument that involuntary childlessness is a complex phenomenon that has far reaching significance worldwide

Local Babies, Global Science Marcia C. Inhorn, 2012-11-12 In the late 1990s Egypt experienced a boom period in in vitro fertilization IVF technology and now boasts more IVF clinics than neighboring Israel In this book Marcia Inhorn writes of her fieldwork among affluent elite couples who sought in vitro fertilization in Egypt a country which is not only at the forefront of IVF technology in the Middle East but also a center of Islamic education in the region Inhorn examines the gender scientific religious and cultural ramifications of the transfer of IVF technology from Euro American points of origin to Egypt showing how cultural ideas reshape the use of this technology and in turn how the technology is reshaping cultural ideas in Egypt
