Testaments Of Faith:

Testaments of Faith Roy Z. Kemp, 1970      The Old Testament Roots of Our Faith Paul J. Achtemeier, Elizabeth Rice Achtemeier, 1994 The heart of the Christian faith rests upon the confession Jesus is Lord yet faithful Christians sometimes overlook the fact that the Lordship of Jesus is firmly rooted in the promises and prophecies of the Old Testament Moreover knowing Jesus more fully entails knowing the story of God's salvation that was planned before the foundation of the world Modern readers tend to forget that the declaration before Abraham was I am underscores the continuity between the promise to Abraham and its fulfillment in Christ Acquiring a basic understanding of the relationship between the Old and New Testaments with respect to salvation's drama will enrich every reader's faith and appreciation for the Scriptures      A Theology of Testament in the Young Luther K. A. Hagen, 1974      Lectures on the Theistic Faith and Its Foundations, and on the Bible Charles Voysey, 1895      The Old Testament and Christian Faith Bernhard W. Anderson, 2010-06-01 List of Contributors Rudolf Bultmann Alan Richardson Carl Michalson Eric Voegelin Wilhelm Vischer John L McKenzie Oscar Cullmann James M Robinson John Dillenberger G Ernest Wright Claus Westermann Bernhard W Anderson Emil Brunner      New Testament Faith for Today Amos N. Wilder, 2014-05-06 What was the faith behind the proclamations of Jesus the message of Paul and the Johannine witness and how can it be recovered today This penetrating and provocative book seeks to probe the various formulations of religious faith in the New Testament with a view to recovering the real essence and genius of Christianity today Dr Wilder sees three principal strains often harmonious but sometimes disparate in New Testament faith the proclamations of Jesus the message of Paul and the witness of John the Evangelist First he studies what has happened to our faith since its original message emerged from the concrete historical act and the resultant community of experience In the time since flesh and spirit as well as humanity and divinity have come to be regarded as mutually exclusive making it necessary for scientific humanism to develop a language of its own for religion has lost communication with it Jesus message however was a total claim and a total hope a prophetic forecast of human destiny Paul though he spoke a different language and used different symbols laid the groundwork for an epochal revolution of the race John for his part emphasized eternal life here and now and provisioned a Christian freedom Dr Wilder ends with a stirring plea for a postliberal viewpoint that will recover the insights of the past without its mythology and terminology      The Faith of the New Testament Alexander Nairne, 1920      The Greater Men and Women of the Bible James Hastings, 1913      The Bible and the rule of faith, tr. by G.M. Ward Louis Nazaire Bégin (card.), 1875      Faith and the New Testament Alfred Walter Frank Blunt, 1912      Baptism in the New Testament G. R. Beasley-Murray, 2006-08-01 Baptism In The New Testament In this thorough and well documented study of the sacrament of Holy Baptism G R Beasley Murray presents a critical defense of the doctrine of believers baptism on the basis of the New Testament evidences The author one of the leading New Testament scholars in England is himself a Baptist but his discussion transcends denominational lines Beasley Murray begins by discussing various rites that precede Christian baptism historically and analyzes the relationship between these earlier rites and baptism From these antecedents Old Testament ritual washings Jewish proselyte baptism the lustrations practiced at Qumran and the baptism of John the Baptist the author proceeds to the foundations of Christian baptism in the career of Jesus its emergence as recorded in the Acts of the Apostles and its development in the New Testament epistolary literature In his consideration of the doctrine of Christian baptism as articulated in the New Testament Beasley Murray focuses his attention on the necessity of baptism and its relationship to grace faith the Spirit the church ethics and hope A careful examination of the rise and significance of infant baptism follows and the study concludes with a selected bibliography and several indices

Biblical Theology of the Old and New Testaments Brevard S. Childs, 1993-04 This monumental work is the first comprehensive biblical theology to appear in many years and is the culmination of Brevard Childs's lifelong commitment to constructing a biblical theology that surmounts objections to the discipline raised over the past generation Childs rejects any approaches that overstress either the continuity or discontinuity between the Old and New Testaments He refuses to follow the common pattern in Christian thought of identifying biblical theology with the New Testament's interest in the Old Rather Childs maps out an approach that reflects on the whole Christian Bible with its two very different voices each of which retains continuing integrity and is heard on its own terms

The Articles of Faith James Edward Talmage, 1909 The Christian Faith Friedrich Schleiermacher, 1928 In the opinion of competent thinkers the Christian Faith of Schleiermacher is with the exception of Calvin's Institutes the most important work covering the whole field of doctrine to which Protestant theology can point To say this is not necessarily to adopt either his fundamental principles or the detailed conclusions to which these principles have guided him On all such matters a nearly unbroken controversy has long prevailed Indeed at the moment a formidable attack is being delivered upon his main positions by a new and active school of thought in Germany But whether for acceptance or rejection it is necessary for serious students to know what Schleiermacher has to say Editors preface page v

Ratzinger's Faith Tracey Rowland, 2008-03-06 A general introduction to the theology of Pope Benedict XVI including his approach to issues in moral and political theology ecclesiology liturgy interpretations of the documents of the Second Vatican Council and the theology of history Tracey Rowland also addresses the question of Pope Benedict's place in the constellation of contemporary Catholic theologians It has become a commonplace observation that Pope Benedict has been influenced by the thought of St Augustine in contrast to many of his predecessors in the papacy who were much more strongly influenced by St Thomas Aquinas Rowland therefore asks in what way Benedict is an Augustinian and how this marked difference in theological perspective may play out in the coming years Her book includes an extensive thematic bibliography which will be valuable for students

Dying for the Faith, Killing for the Faith ,2012-01-06 The message of the old testamentary Maccabees is martial and pernicious as well as already pointed out by Erasmus of Rotterdam The circumstances in which the Maccabean literature emerged are complex and have not yet been explored by scholars in all their details even more complex is the history of its influence the Wirkungsgeschichte in the sense Hans Georg Gadamer has given to the term a history which was to large extent a purely Christian one The early Christians saw the Maccabees as prototypical martyrs Later they discovered warrior heroes whose courage was the measure of whoever fought in the name of God or freedom Saxons Scots or citizens of Cologne who rose up against their rulers This history of influence is the focus of the essays collected in this book which extend thematically and chronologically from the cult of martyrs in late antiquity to the time of the modern wars of liberation
