Resources in Education ,1997 Blue Veins and Kinky Hair Obiagele Lake,2003-06-30 The author explores how Africans in America internalized the negative images created of them by the European world and how internalized racism has worked to fracture African American unity and thereby dilute inchoate efforts toward liberation In the late 1960s change began with the Black Is Beautiful slogan and new a consciousness which went hand in hand with Black Power and pan African movements The author argues that for any people to succeed they must first embrace their own identity including physical characteristics Naming skin color and hair have been topical issues in the African American community since the 18th century These three areas are key to a sense of identity and self and they were forcefully changed when Africans were taken out of Africa as slaves The author discusses how group and personal names including racial epithets have had far reaching and deep seated effects on African American self perception Most of her attention however is focused on issues of physical appearance which reflect a greater or lesser degree of racial blending She tells us about exclusive African American organizations such as The Blue Vein Society in which membership was extended to African Americans whose skin color and hair texture tended toward those of European Americans although wealthy dark skinned people were also eligible Much of the book details the lengths to which African American women have gone to lighten their complexions and straighten their hair These endeavors started many years ago and still continue although today there is also a large number of women who are adamantly going natural Her historical look at the cultural background to African American issues of hair and skin is the first monograph of its kind To Make Our World Anew Robin D. G. Kelley,Earl Lewis,2000 Written by the most prominent of the new generation of historians this superb volume offers the most up to date and authoritative account available of African American history ranging from the first Africans brought as slaves into the Americas to today s black filmmakers and politicians Here is a panoramic view of African American life rich in gripping first person accounts and short character sketches that invite readers to relive history as African Americans experienced it We begin in Africa with the growth of the slave trade and follow the forced migration of what is estimated to be between ten and twenty million people witnessing the terrible human cost of slavery in the colonies of England and Spain We read of the Haitian Revolution which ended victoriously in 1804 with the birth of the first independent black nation in the New World and of slave rebellions and resistance in the United States in the years leading up to the Civil War There are vivid accounts of the Civil War and Reconstruction years the backlash of notorious Jim Crow laws and mob lynchings and the founding of key black educational institutions The contributors also trace the migration of blacks to the major cities the birth of the Harlem Renaissance the hardships of the Great Depression and the service of African Americans in World War II the struggle for Civil Rights in the 1950s and 60s and the emergence of today s black middle class From Harriet Tubman and Frederick Douglass to Martin Luther King Jr and Louis Farrakhan To Make Our World Anew is an unforgettable portrait of a people philosophies It is the first book on arts based research which focuses on the city adopting a posthumanist approach to the assembled nature of urban environments where agency is distributed across infrastructures technologies spaces things and bodies Chapters one to seven feature a series of studies situated in different cities in Europe and the Americas which outline experiences of movement inhabitancy interdependence collaboration infrastructuring and sensorial re calibration informed by art practices in film photography digital projection installation performance and art as social practice At the core of this book is the idea that aesthetic ecologies of cities do not depend solely on human activity relying instead on non logocentric modalities of collective life The book is an indispensable tool to researchers instructors and graduate students in education the social sciences and the arts aiming to conceive design and develop projects in arts based research Men We Cherish Brooke Stephens,2012-02-01 One evening in 1994 writer Brooke Stephens was listening to the news while working on a tribute to her grandfather for an upcoming family reunion The evening s newscast began with three negative reports about black men as rapists muggers and murderers The contrast between the black men on the news and the black man she was writing about suddenly seemed enormous Where were the black men she knew Stephens wondered Why were they never featured on the evening news Never publicly discussed or shown From these questions the idea for Men We Cherish was born Waiting to Exhale and the Million Man March to the contrary good black men are neither fantasy nor unanswered prayer In Men We Cherish thirty African American women celebrate these everyday heroes fathers and grandfathers brothers and best friends sons and husbands These essays memoirs and love letters offer moving portraits of the three out of four black men who never make the headlines The men in the lives of established black women writers including Bebe Moore Campbell Gloria Wade Gayles Charlayne Hunter Gault and the Delany sisters reflect the diversity honesty generosity and depth that is the reality of African American men With Men We Cherish Brooke Stephens has created a groundbreaking collection that stands alone in the market as a literary memoir a social critique and an affirmation of faith Black Sexualities Juan Battle,Sandra L. Barnes,2009-11-24 Why does society have difficulty discussing sexualities Where does fear of Black sexualities emerge and how is it manifested How can varied experiences of Black females and males who are lesbian gay bisexual transgender LGBT or straight help inform dialogue and academic inquiry From questioning forces that have constrained sexual choices to examining how Blacks have forged healthy sexual identities in an oppressive environment Black Sexualities acknowledges the diversity of the Black experience and the shared legacy of racism Contributors seek resolution to Blacks understanding of their lives as sexual beings through stories of empowerment healing self awareness victories and other historic and contemporary life course panoramas and provide practical information to foster more culturally relative research tolerance and acceptance Ebony ,1995-01 EBONY is the flagship magazine of Johnson Publishing Founded in 1945 by John H Johnson it still maintains the highest global circulation of any African American focused magazine

Children of the Dream Laurel Holliday,2014-02-04 I let somebody call me nigger It wasn t just any old body either it was my friend That really hurt Amityyah Elayne Hyman Martin Luther King Jr dreamed of a day when black children were judged not by the color of their skin but by the content of their character His eloquent charge became the single greatest inspiration for the achievement of racial justice in America In her powerful fourth book in the Children of Conflict series Laurel Holliday explores how far we have come as she presents thirty eight African Americans who share their experiences as Children of the Dream I was brought up with white Barbie dolls of impossible proportions and long silky blonde hair neither of which I possessed As a child I believed what I was taught and I wasn't taught to love myself for who I am an African American Charisse Nesbit The unforgettable people we hear from are young and old rich and poor from inner cities suburbia and rural America In chronicles that are highly personal funny tragic and triumphant the contributors tell us what it is like coming of age stigmatized by the color of their skin yet proud of their heritage and culture Their voices their courage their resilience and their understanding offer hope for us all

Shaking the Tree Meri Nana-Ama Danquah, 2004 Showcasing the newest generation of black women writers this collection gathers 23 voices that came of age in the wake of the civil rights black arts gay rights and feminist movements

Sweet Release James Davison, Ph.D, 2010-06-03 African Americans have come a long way in the difficult upward struggle from slavery to the relatively broad freedoms enjoyed today Together as a potent and well knit group they have battled endlessly in their march toward freedom Finally according to psychologist James Davison Jr the last step to freedom for black Americans has arrived But that last step must be taken as individuals not as a collective In this assessment of the problems and potentials facing African Americans Dr Davison argues that in order for achieving individuals to advance to the final step of freedom they must break free from the mental shackles created by the black community The central theme of Sweet Release is that the forces that impinge most upon psychological freedom for black Americans come from within Guilt for being successful shame in reaction to the misbehaviors of race peers demands to give back to the community and accusations of trying to be white are just a few of the mechanisms that thwart psychological freedom for black persons Dr Davison argues that individual lifestyles aspirations even identities are constrained by the specter of racial unity As a result for black advancers what remains to be overcome is not the system or them but internalized community attitudes that put a choke hold on individual freedom Unafraid of controversy or candid assessment Dr Davison addresses these and other thorny issues with psychological insight while offering strategies to move beyond group constrictions toward personal freedom James Davison Jr PhD Sacramento CA is a psychologist in private practice and also works in the criminal justice system for the California State Prison system In addition he is the author of Prisoners of Our Past      New Blood Chris Bobel,2010 Chris Bobel is a careful ethnographer respectful of research participants and while she clearly takes a stand on menstrual activism she handily defends her proposition that feminism is finding its balance between reliving its past and creating its future Bobel s work which includes incisive analysis of how third wave activists incorporate and update tactics and strategies of the second wave will be a welcome addition to the scholarship of feminism Elizabeth Kissling author of Capitalizing on the Curse The Business of Menstruation      Reifying Women's Experiences with Invisible Illness Kesha Morant Williams,Frances Selena Morant,2017-12-20 Reifying Women s Experiences with Invisible Illness Illusions Delusions Reality provides a platform that recognizes that the experience of invisible illness is greatly influenced by context and personal circumstance The contributors to this book include women who exude diversity as it relates to race and ethnicity career religious experience education social support and interpersonal relationships From recent college graduates to senior level professionals these women share stories that create a space to advocate on behalf of the individual who is chronically ill rather than focusing on the often privileged perspective of medical professionals
