Science Fiction, New Space Opera, and Neoliberal Globalism Jerome Winter, 2016-11-15 One of the few points critics and readers can agree upon when discussing the fiction popularly known as New Space Opera a recent subgenre movement of science fiction is its canny engagement with contemporary cultural politics in the age of globalisation This book avers that the complex political allegories of New Space Opera respond to the recent cultural phenomenon known as neoliberalism which entails the championing of the deregulation and privatisation of social services and programmes in the service of global free market expansion Providing close readings of the evolving New Space Opera canon and cultural histories and theoretical contexts of neoliberalism as a regnant ideology of our times this book conceptualises a means to appreciate this thriving movement of popular literature

A Quest for Remembrance Madeleine Scherer, Rachel Falconer, 2019-11-20 A Quest for Remembrance The Underworld in Classical and Modern literature brings together a range of arguments exploring connections between the descent into the underworld also known as katabasis and various forms of memory Its chapters investigate the uses of the descent topos both in antiquity and in the reception of classical literature in the nineteenth to twenty first centuries In the process the volume explores how the hero's quest into the underworld engages with the theme of recovering memories from the past At the same time we aim to foreground how the narrative format itself is concerned with forms of commemoration ranging from trans cultural memory remembering the literary and intellectual canon to commemorating important historical events that might otherwise be forgotten Through highlighting this duality this collection aims to introduce the descent narrative as its own literary genre a memorious genre related to but distinct from the quest narrative
