Daughters of the Faith SET #2 (four books) Wendy Lawton, 2009-01-01 This package includes four books of the Daughters of Faith Series Set 2 Freedom's Pen Courage to Run The Hallelujah Lass and Ransom's Mark There are a few elements of the Daughters of Faith Series that separate it from many other children's book biographies First these books are about little girls They are not biographies of the entire life of these characters these are stories about girls who made a difference while they were still young This enables the young girl readers to relate to the characters more than they would if these characters had to wait until they were thirty or forty before doing anything significant Second these stories are faith journeys Lawton gets inside the minds of these girls in order to portray their struggles to make God an active part of their lives In Freedom's Pen Phillis Wheatley was a little girl of seven or eight years old when she was captured in Gambia and brought to America as a slave in 1761 But she didn't let her circumstances keep her down She learned to read and write in English and Latin and showed a natural gift for poetry By the time she was twelve her elegy at the death of the great pastor George Whitefield brought her worldwide acclaim Phillis became known to heads of state including George Washington himself speaking out for American independence and the end of slavery She became the first African American to publish a book and her writings would eventually win her freedom More importantly her poetry still proclaims Christ almost 250 years later In Courage to Run Harriet Tubman was born a slave on a Maryland plantation in the 1800's She trusts in God but her faith is tested at every turn Should she obey her masters or listen to her conscience This story from Harriet's childhood is a record of courage Even more it's the story of God's faithfulness as He prepares her for her adult calling to lead more than 300 people out of slavery through the Underground Railroad In The Hallelujah Lass Lawton tells the story of Eliza Shirley a 16 year old girl who traveled from England to pioneer the work of the Salvation Army in the United States As a teenager growing up in nineteenth century England Eliza was the picture of a proper young lady But she longed for more than an ordinary middle class life When a group of Hallelujah Lassies marches into Coventry with a ragtag bunch of followers singing and banging tabourines even ensuing riots cannot keep Eliza away She knows at last that this is the work God has prepared for her And she is ready no matter what the cost In Ransom s Mark when 13 year old Olive Oatman s wagon train is raided by outlaw Yavapai Indians she and her sister are captured After enduring harsh treatment they are ransomed by a band of Mohaves Olive struggles to adjust to her new life but finds comfort in her faith and in an unexpected friendship When the time comes for her to return to the white world she is afraid she will never fit in But she learns to see the Mohave design tattooed on her chin as a sign of God s love and deliverance a mark of ransom Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,2003
