Myers,2008-10-01 DIVFor Americans entering the twenty first century it is the best of times and the worst of times Material wealth is at record levels yet disturbing social problems reflect a deep spiritual poverty In this compelling book well known social psychologist David G Myers asks how this paradox has come to be and more important how we can spark social renewal and dream a new American dream Myers explores the research on social ills from the 1960s through the 1990s and concludes that the materialism and radical individualism of this period have cost us dearly imperiling our children corroding general civility and diminishing our happiness However in the voices of public figures and ordinary citizens he now hears a spirit of optimism The national dialogue is shifting away from the expansion of personal rights and toward enhancement of communal civility away from efforts to raise self esteem and toward attempts to arouse social responsibility away from whose values and toward our values Myers analyzes in detail the research on educational and other programs that deal with social problems explaining which seem to work and why He then offers positive and well reasoned advice suggesting that a renewed social ecology for America will rest on policies that balance me thinking with we thinking div Children of Coercive Control Evan Stark,2023 In accessible prose illustrated by dramatic cases from his forensic practice Evan Stark shows that the vast majority of children killed or seriously injured in families are victims of coercive control by their father Coercive control has been adapted by many countries and US States as the overarching definition of violence against women Children are secondary victims of this process Stark describes why he would abolish the child welfare system and replace the ameliorative approach to child abuse and child protection with criminal laws against coercive control and support independence for women and children Mother Jones Magazine ,1999-01 Mother Jones is an award winning national magazine widely respected for its groundbreaking investigative reporting and coverage of sustainability and environmental issues Handbook of Child Psychopathology Thomas H. and family life Included in the eclectic collection of texts we reviewed were ministers whose focus was on spirituality doctors who emphasized medical aspects of child and adult health and public health professionals and home economists concerned with fighting disease who emphasized cleanliness order fighting germs and eliminating rodents and insects There are also philosophers who drew from ancient texts when discussing family life and a count who assembled a group of German intellectual elites to address various topics An insightful essay of this type is by Marta Karlweis 1926 in which she notes There is no other fetish that society holds to so firmly as the conception woman with all its usual associations of infantilism and dependence The child requires protection is a minor and consequently a serf but above all it possesses no spiritual existence Neither doctorates or other distinctions nor the right to vote have as yet been able to dispel this sweet idea of the childishness of woman which man cherishes p
