Narrativizing Theories Benjamin John Peters, 2020-02-06 Ours is an age of offense a time of reactionary shock always received never given Ours is an age that has forgone cultural narratives a time of individualism wherein personal identities trump the collective spirit Ours is an age of failing earth a time of ecological collapse yet the consumption of global capitalism continues to run amok But don t fear You have the correct worldview the best solutions It s not your fault these things are happening It s the president s the immigrant s and the Islamicist s Or perhaps It s the socialist s the tree hugger s and the baby killer s But it s not your fault Never yours For the world exists as you see it in an echo chamber lined with golden pixels Do I still have your attention Then join me Within the covers of Narrativizing Theories I dive into ambiguity and aesthetics to depict how clashing worldviews exist side by side yet remain mutually incompatible I examine how cultures distinguish between acceptable and unacceptable beliefs embodiments and identities And I outline an aesthetic theory of ambiguity that highlights through the twists and turns of literature the provisionality of knowledge and the narrativization of reality

The Past is a Foreign Country - Revisited David Lowenthal, 2015-10 A completely updated new edition of David Lowenthal's classic account of how we reshape the past to serve present needs Beyond the Philosopher's Fear Professor Ludger H Viefhues-Bailey, 2012-10-01 Based on a detailed analysis of gender in Stanley Cavell's treatment of the skeptical problem this book addresses the relationship between gender and religion in modern skepticism Engaging in dialogue with Julia Kristeva's philosophy Viefhues claims that a religious problem underlies Cavell's understanding of the feminine The feminine which the skeptic fears is construed as a placeholder for the beyond marking the transcendence of our origins which are elusive yet at the same time part of ourselves It is argued that a religious question of origins thus lies at the heart of the modern skeptical problem Landscape and Vision in Nineteenth-Century Britain and France Michael Charlesworth, 2017-07-05 A study of the ways landscape was perceived in nineteenth century Britain and France this book draws on evidence from poetry landscape gardens spectacular public entertainments novels and scientific works as well as paintings in order to develop its basic premise that landscape and the processes of perceiving it cannot be separated Vision embraces panoramic seeing from high places but also the seeing of ghosts and spectres when madness and hallucination impinge upon landscape The rise of geology and the spread of empires upset the existing comfortable orders of comprehension of landscape Reverie and imagination produced powerful interpretive actions while landscape in French culture proved central to the rejection of conservative classicism in favour of perceptual questioning of experience The experience of subjectivity proved central to the perception of landscape while the visual culture of landscape became of paramount importance to modernity during the period in question The Act of Documenting Brian Winston, Gail Vanstone, Wang Chi, 2017-01-26 Documentary has never attracted such audiences never been produced with such ease from so many corners of the globe never embraced such variety of expression The very distinctions between the filmed the filmer and the spectator are being dissolved The Act of Documenting addresses what this means for documentary s 21st century position as a genus in the class cinema for its foundations as primarily a scientific eurocentric and patriarchal discourse for its future in a world where assumptions of photographic image integrity cannot be sustained Unpacked are distinctions between performance and performativity and between different levels of interaction linearity and hypertextuality engagement and impact ethics and conditions of reception Winston Vanstone and Wang Chi explore and celebrate documentary s potentials in the digital age The Practice of Narrative: Storytelling in a Global Context Michael

Heitkemper-Yates,2019-01-04 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2016 Story can have a power and presence that stretches beyond the vast unspeakable boundaries of time and space and yet story can also have a delicate impermanence that lasts no longer than a moment before it flashes back into the void Some stories can bring people together other stories can tear entire civilisations apart Stories express and enliven experience stories project and describe the desires and anxieties of existence Stories can be narrated through written word and physical gesture through graphic illustration and musical orchestration through the spatial dynamics of architecture and the abstract poetics of conjecture For these and myriad other reasons storytelling and narrative are central to humanity and the study of these practices is central to an understanding of what it means to be human In this volume the many narrative dimensions media and critical approaches to storytelling are explored with the common intention of comprehending and appreciating the global role that story plays in the articulation of human experience The Emerald City and Other Essays on the Architectural Imagination Daniel Willis,1999 In The Emerald City Dan Willis takes us on a flight of imagination that paradoxically never strays far from the most tangible even intimate subjects His essays range from the Tower of Babel to the Wizard of Oz from Christo to Christmas trees from the lightness of being to the weight of architecture This ultimately optimistic book suggests that architecture is as vital as ever It is tempting to say that our present cultural situation has rendered architecture nearly impossible if not unnecessary But it is also possible to look to what our lives at the turn of the millennium typically lack fulfillment spirituality a sense of belonging weight and to conclude that the ground for architecture has never been more fertile The texts intelligent and readable draw equally from literary sources architectural practice philosophical analyses pop culture and everyday experiences Willis s perspective as a writer architect artist and teacher informs his work his texts are at once reflective and proactive as they challenge readers to rethink their participation in the built environment Accompanying the text are the author s original illustrations which link the forms and forces surrounding architecture at the end of the twentieth century in novel thought provoking ways Biographical Fiction Michael Lackey,2017-01-01 In recent years the biographical novel has become one of the most dominant literary forms J M Coetzee Margaret Atwood Hilary Mantel Colum McCann Anne Enright Joyce Carol Oates Peter Carey Russell Banks and Julia Alvarez are just a few luminaries who have published stellar biographical novels But why did this genre come into being mainly in the 20th century Is it ethical to invent stories about an actual historical figure What is biofiction uniquely capable of signifying Why are so many prominent writers now authoring such works And why are they winning such major awards In Biographical Fiction A Reader some of the finest scholars and writers of biofiction clarify what led to the rise of this genre reflect on its nature and form and specify what it is uniquely capable of doing Combining primary and critical material this accessible reader will be invaluable to students teachers and scholars of biofiction
