Sketchbook Carl Morris:

Sketchbook, 1985 Sketchbook William Cumming, 2005 William Cumming began as a self taught artist who grew up in Tukwila a small town outside Seattle In 1937 at the age of twenty he met Morris Graves who was at that time working in Seattle for the Federal Art project of the Works Progress Administration Through Graves he soon became part of the circle of friends who came to be known as the Northwest School of artists Mark Tobey then nearing fifty the patriarchal leader of the group Kenneth Callahan and his wife Margaret a writer and critic who became Cumming's particular mentor Guy Anderson Lubin Petric and others He has taught for many years at the Art Institute of Seattle and Cornish College of the Arts Bill Cumming is at once an exceptional and successful regional artist and one of the most erudite perceptive and entertainingly cantankerous characters in this part of the world He tells what it was like to be an artist in the Great Depression tells tales out of school about such international luminaries as Mark Tobey and Morris Graves tells how the Northwest School of which he was the youngest member developed tells about the early success and ultimate failure of the Communist movement in the Far West and shows how the political economic and cultural events of a half century affected the life of a region and of its creative minority Cumming is a natural raconteur equipped with more literary wit and charm than most professional writers Tom Robbins Besides being one of the Northwest's best painters Bill Cumming has certainly had a knack for being historically speaking in the right place at the right time Beyond being good local history his Sketchbook is a moving sometimes chillingly perceptive and certainly fascinating glimpse into the nature of artists themselves Wesley Wehr Selections from the Reed College Art Collection Reed College (Portland, Or.), Douglas F. Sketchbooks Christian M. Nebehay, Egon Schiele, 1989 Few of Egon Schiele's sketchbooks are known to have survived intact many were dismantled after his death and their pages sold individually Reproduced here for the first time ever in their entirety are all thirteen of the complete books now preserved in public collections in Vienna They date from 1911 to 1918 the last and most important years of the artist's short life To place the sketchbooks in their context in Schiele's oeuvre and to give a comprehensive view of his output more than a hundred of his finished paintings watercolors and gouaches are presented in full color alongside their related studies Accompanying the reproductions are illuminating excerpts from Schiele's correspondence and other contemporary sources which shed penetrating light on the artist's intimate life Dust jacket
