

The background of the slide is a watercolor illustration. It depicts a wooden desk with an open notebook in the foreground, showing handwritten text. A quill pen lies on the notebook. In the background, there is a small potted plant with green leaves. The overall style is soft and artistic, with a muted color palette.

Wasson; Wendell Phillips; Appledore and Its Visitors; John Greenleaf Whittier Stearns Frank Preston, 2016-06-21 Unlike some other reproductions of classic texts 1 We have not used OCR Optical Character Recognition as this leads to bad quality books with introduced typos 2 In books where there are images such as portraits maps sketches etc We have endeavoured to keep the quality of these images so they represent accurately the original artefact Although occasionally there may be certain imperfections with these old texts we feel they deserve to be made available for future generations to enjoy Sketches from Concord and Appledore Frank Preston Stearns, 2014-05-18 To one looking westward from Boston State House there appears a line of rugged precipitous hills extending across the country from southwest to northeast Having ascended these heights we perceive beyond them an irregular line of pale blue mountains of which Wachusett is the most southerly peak and which is in fact a portion of the White Mountain range extending through New Hampshire and into the northern part of Maine The watershed between these two forms the valley of the Concord and

Merrimac Rivers which is the first military line of defence in New England west of the sea coast It is for this reason that the first struggle for American independence took place on the banks of the Concord River and not elsewhere a fact that might have been predicted though not of course with certainty when Boston was first settled
