Physical Appearance and Gender Linda A. Jackson, 1992-02-06 This book examines two kinds of research research in social psychology and in clinical psychology into the effects of physical appearance on person perception Both are explored with the objective of identifying gender similarities and differences on the effects of physical appearance The theoretical framework for integrating the two approaches is presented with implications of this framework for future research social change and psychotherapy The book demonstrates that gender must be considered in research on physical appearance effects Directory of Music Faculties in Colleges and Universities, U. S. and Canada, 2005 What Wild Ecstasy John Heidenry, 2002-03-22 From the former editor of Penthouse Forum comes a detailed and deep exploration of the sexual revolution and its issues including controversy over freedom of expression and the rights of gays and lesbians In this extensive history of three decades of sexual culture John Heidenry details the rise of the science of sexology the burgeoning of pornographic works that fanned controversies over freedom of expression and the lobbying of homosexuals With discussion of Bob Guccione Hugh Hefner Larry Flynt and other prominent figures Heidenry gives readers a peak at the rise and fall of the sexual revolution and its effect on society as a whole Building Capitalism (Routledge Revivals) Linda Clarke, 2012-12-06 First published in 1992 this Routledge Revival sees the reissue of a truly original exploration of the nature of urbanization and capitalism Linda Clarke's vital work argues that Urbanization is a product of the social human labour engaged in building as well as a concentration of the labour force The quality of the labour process determines the development of production Changes to the built environment reflect changes in the production process and in particular the development of wage labour To support these arguments the author identifies a qualitatively new historical stage of capitalist building production involving a significant expansion of wage labour and hence capital and the transition from artisan to industrial production Linda Clarke draws from a wide range of original material relating to the development of London from the mid eighteenth to the early nineteenth century to provide a complete description of the development process materials extraction roadbuilding housebuilding paving cleansing etc profiles of builders and contractors involved and a picture of the new working class communities as in Somers Town their living conditions population working environment and politics

Register of Commissioned and Warrant Officers of the United States Naval Research and Marine Corps Reserve United States. Bureau of Naval Personnel, 1977 Policy Issues in Employment Testing Linda C. Wing, Bernard R. Gifford, 2012-12-06 Linda C Wing and Bernard R Gifford How should a society committed to the ideas of individual merit equal opportunity and the free marketplace allocate scarce educational and employment opportunities How can that society draw distinctions fairly and justifiably among people competing against each other for the same opportunity These are among the central questions of a democracy How a society answers them reveals a great deal about its values and its priorities and determines a great deal about its future course In recent decades we have placed the standardized pencil and paper test at the center of these fundamental questions about the nature of opportunity allocation in American life In more and more areas of our lives schools employment the military we rely upon the standardized test to rank or classify people and to assure ourselves that we have done so fairly The papers gathered here were prepared at the invitation of the National Commission on Testing and Public Policy The editors of this volume were involved in the commission from its inception in 1987 until shortly after the publication of its major public report in 1990 Bernard Gifford as Chair and Linda Wing as Associate Director
