Nationalversammlung (1919-1920). Untersuchungsausschuss über die Weltkriegsverantwortlichkeit, 1923      The U-Boat War in the Atlantic, 1939-1941 Bob Carruthers, 2013-03-18 First in the trilogy that covers WWII submarine warfare in the Atlantic from the German perspective edited by the Emmy Award winning historian and author The U Boat war is a unique visual record of Hitler's infamous submarine fleet and a grim account of those that lived worked and risked their lives stalking the depths of the Atlantic and Mediterranean seas This book analyzes the development of the U boat the recruitment and training and reveals how the crews tried to destroy essential Allied supplies across the Atlantic and bring Britain to its knees Using some 250 rare and unpublished photographs together with detailed captions and accompanying text the book provides an outstanding insight into the various operations and the claustrophobic existence of the crew where they lived in cramped and often deplorable conditions It depicts how this potent force became one of the most dominant German fighting units during World War Two and became such a worry to Allied shipping that even Winston Churchill himself claimed that the U boat peril was the only thing that ever really frightened him during the war On their defeat hung the outcome of the war and through courageous and determined resistance against overwhelming odds the Allies eventually inflicted such catastrophic damage on the U boats that the losses were too great to continue Of the 38 000 men that went to sea onboard these deadly vessels only 8 000 were to survive to tell the tale      The Spectator, 1919      The War at Sea, 1939-1945 Stephen Wentworth Roskill, 1961      March Past Lord Lovat, 2022-10-21 At the outbreak of war in 1940 Simon Frazer the 15th Lord Lovat and a former Guards officer was mobilized from the reserve list to join the Lovat Scouts the British Army's first sniper unit that had been formed by his father during the Boer War The following year he volunteered for one of the new Commando units then being created Lovat was personally involved in the training of the Commando troops on the West coast of Scotland He was eventually attached to and led No 4 Commando On 3 March 1941 Nos 3 and 4 Commando launched a raid on the German occupied Lofoten Islands In this successful attack Operation Claymore the commandos destroyed fish oil factories petrol dumps and even eleven ships They also seized encryption equipment and codebooks as well as captured 216 German troops Promoted to temporary major Lovat led 100 men of No 4 Commando and a 50 man detachment from the Canadian Carleton and York Regiment in a raid on the French coastal village of Hardelot in April 1942 For this action he was awarded the Military Cross on 7 July that year Lord Lovat was involved in further raids against the German held French coast most notably Dieppe during which No 4 Commando destroyed the coastal battery at Varengeville sur Mer in a textbook commando attack This resulted in Lovat being awarded the DSO Such was the effect the Commando raids had on German morale Lovat had 100 000 Reichmarks placed on his head dead or alive Promoted to brigadier Lovat formed the 1st Special Service Brigade later the 1st Commando Brigade which stormed ashore on D Day to secure the eastern flank of the attacking forces In this he famously instructed his personal piper Bill Millin to pipe the commandos and himself ashore in defiance of specific orders not to allow such an action in battle In the subsequent fighting Lovat was seriously wounded effectively ending his active career These are the memoirs of one of the most remarkable fighting figures of the Second World War who was involved in some its more exciting and dangerous operations Despite his aristocratic ancestry he led from the front and without doubt Simon Frazer Lord Lovat was a soldiers soldier Port of London ,1960 Report on the Lancashire Sea-Fisheries Laboratory at the University of Liverpool, and the Sea-Fish Hatchery at Piel University of Liverpool. Unable to Prevent Climate Change and World Wars? Arnd Bernaerts,2012 The Second World War stands for the criminal madness of German Nazi government Less known is their responsibility for the only climatic shift from warm to cold in an otherwise constantly warming world over the last 150 years Not knowing the reason for the biggest climatic shift since industrialization which started in winter 1939 40 rectifies to speak about failures of meteorology Only four months into Second World War Northern Europe experienced the coldest winter in 100 years The reason plain physics Naval war in Northern European seas released the summer heat too quickly Polar air got free access to Europe The same applies to the second and third war winter Europe was back in the Little Ice Age After Japan attacked Pearl Harbor on Dec 7th 1941 naval war became a global affair In close conformity with naval war in European seas and subsequently in the Pacific a pronounced global cooling took place which lasted until about the mid 1970s Furthermore a thorough research of strong warming in the Northern Hemisphere from winter 1918 19 to winter 1939 40 would have revealed a convincing link to naval war in Europe from 1914 to 1918 But climatology does not care The connection between two naval wars and two climatic changes within 25 years has not yet been investigated and explained If they had warned governments about the threat of climate change as their successors currently do with the greenhouse effect naval activities in two World Wars may have been prevented or at least been limited Claims to understand climate should be regarded as a failure as long as meteorology is unable to explain the two most pronounced climatic shifts during the last century and the role two world wars had in this game These two events would show that the oceans have a dominate role in the climate system and man is able to change its direction by intensive activities in the marine environment It took four months to generate the extreme regional winter 19 Fragments of War Joyce
