The Many Faces Of Yugoslavia:

The Many Faces of Yugoslavia Pierre Leprohon, 1975 The Many Faces of the Contemporary Russian Propaganda in the Balkans Vladimir Đorđević, 2024-09-05 This book provides an overview of the contemporary Serbian media sphere and the dire conditions that Serbian journalists face to explore how Russian propaganda has flourished in the region This volume establishes a framework to understand the ideological core of Russian propaganda that above all aims to reconstruct societal reality through anti Western rhetoric This framework helps to explore the relationship between Russian propaganda and Serbian nationalism expanding on the significance of their mutual ties and confronting the implications of their close knit connections The Many Faces of Change Paul Meadows, 1971 The Feminist Challenge to the Socialist State in Yugoslavia Zsófia Lóránd, 2018-09-27 This book tells the story of new Yugoslav feminism in the 1970s and 1980s reassessing the effects of state socialism on women s emancipation through the lens of the feminist critique This volume explores the history of the ideas defining a social movement analysing the major debates and arguments this milieu engaged in from the perspective of the history of political thought intellectual history and cultural history Twenty five years after the end of the Cold War societies in and scholars of East Central Europe still struggle to sort out the effects of state socialism on gender relations in the region What could tell us more about the subject than the ideas set out by the only organised and explicitly feminist opposition in the region who as academics artists writers and activists criticised the regime and demanded change Problems of Communism , 1968 Yugoslav Review , 1984 Research Series , 1996 This Is Not My World Adair Rounthwaite, 2024-01-16 A close up history of the Yugoslav artists who broke down the boundaries between public and private In the decades leading up to the dissolution of socialist Yugoslavia a collective of young artists based in Zagreb took to using the city s public spaces as a platform for radical individual expression This Is Not My World presents a detailed account of the Group of Six Authors and their circle in the prolific and experimental period from 1975 to 1985 highlighting the friction between public and private that underlied their innovative practices Looking to circumvent the rigid bureaucracy of official art institutions this freewheeling group of conceptual artists and their peers brought artistic activities directly to an unwitting public by staging provocative performances exhibiting artworks and interacting with passersby on the streets Exploring artworks such as Vlasta Delimar s act of tying herself to a tree in a busy pedestrian area eljko Jerman s production of a giant banner declaring Intimate Inscription in the city s central square and Vlado Martek s creation of an artwork on a seaside beach using women s underwear Adair Rounthwaite examines the work of these artists as a site of tension between the intimacy of artistic expression and the political structure of the public sphere under state socialism Whereas many histories of modern and contemporary art in formerly socialist countries tend to be dominated by discussions of ideology and resistance This Is Not My World focuses its attention on the affective aspects of the group's activities using artist interviews and extensive documentation to bring the reader closer to the felt experience of their public interventions Situating the group's work within the context of broader developments in conceptualism and theories of the avant garde Rounthwaite provides a fresh consideration and newly detailed account of this marginalized episode in global art history Bibliography of Sources on Yugoslavia Rusko Matulić,1981 The Many Faces of Asian Security Sheldon W. Simon,2001 This authoritative volume evaluates post Cold War approaches to security in the Asia Pacific Leading specialists first examine traditional security concerns military capabilities balance of power territorial and resource disputes the effects of new technologies on military strategy and the problems involved in maintaining sovereignty in the face of globalization They then introduce the new security agenda of economic and financial stability the effects of environmental degradation human rights and political stability and the impact of transnational crime Their wide ranging and incisive discussions will be of interest to policymakers scholars and students alike Visit our website for sample chapters Review of the Study Centre for Jugoslav Affairs Study Centre for Jugoslav Affairs,1977 The Balkan Pivot: Yugoslavia Charles Austin Beard,George Radin,America-Yugoslav Society of New York,Institute of Public Administration (New York, N.Y.),1929 Library of Congress Catalog: Motion Pictures and Filmstrips Library of Congress,1968 Women and War Joyce P. Kaufman,Kristen P. Williams,2010 Women everywhere have long struggled for recognition as equal productive members of society worthy of taking part in the political process These struggles become even more pronounced in times of conflict and war when the symbolism and myths of womanhood are used to stoke nationalistic ideas about the survival of the state Yet for all the rhetoric that takes place in their name it's men who generally make decisions regarding war Women and War examines how women respond to situations of conflict Drawing on both traditional and feminist international relations theory it explores the roles that women play before during and after a conflict how they spur and respond to nationalist and social movements and how conceptions of gender are deeply intertwined with ideas about citizenship and the state As Kaufman and Williams show women do more than respond to conflict situations they are active agents in their own right shaping political and historical processes Their conclusions encourage us to rethink the prevalent assumptions of international relations history and feminist scholarship and theory Serbia's Balancing Act Vuk Vuksanovic,2025-03-20 The central country in the Western Balkans Serbia puzzles observers by balancing its foreign policy between two competing great powers Russia and the West What drives a small country to behave like this In this book Vuk Vuksanovic explores the strategic trends which have shaped Serbian foreign policy beginning in 2008 when the country's international position was permanently changed by the global financial crisis and the unilateral declaration of independence by Serbia's former province Kosovo Vuksanovic also shows the domestic dynamic shaping this policy primarily the competition between Serbian political parties Since then this small Balkan country has become a tipping point between two external great powers against each other Demonstrating how this and other major international developments have affected the country's stance towards these great powers including the Russian annexation of Crimea Brexit the migrant crisis the rise and fall of Donald Trump the COVID 19 pandemic and the on going war in Ukraine Vuksanovic reveals how Serbia has placed itself at the centre of a deeply opportunistic and precariously balanced partnership which impacts both its domestic and international policy in a multitude of ways Experimental
