Sir Henry Pellatt:

Casa Loma Bill Freeman, 2014-06-24 This beautifully illustrated book tells the story of Casa Loma Toronto's most famous historic site and its owner Sir Henry Pellatt. Casa Loma took 300 men three years to build at a cost of 3.5 million. Completed in 1914, the castle was enjoyed by Pellatt for only ten years before bankruptcy took it from his hands. Today Casa Loma is owned and operated by the City of Toronto. This book includes a visual tour of the building as it is today, restored to its turn of the century splendour. As well, author and historian Bill Freeman tells the colourful story of Pellatt's life, accompanied by a rich variety of archival images. Pellatt was an entrepreneurial and domineering Toronto financier with a central role in the city's financial life at the turn of the century. He lost his fortune and ended his days in very modest circumstances, but he left the city a dramatic landmark building. Author Bill Freeman takes readers on a full tour of this dramatic hillside castle, illustrated with full colour photographs by Vincenzo Pietropaolo. Sir Henry Pellatt, the King of Casa Loma Charlie Oreskovich, 1996. Casa Loma Bill Freeman, 2014-07-10 Winner Heritage Toronto Award of Merit 1999. Freeman tells the whole fascinating story in great detail, enhanced with lavish use of pictures from past and present. Mary Nolan Hamilton Spectator well balanced and highly readable. This guide to Toronto provides complete coverage of Canada's most diverse city. The guide opens with a colour introduction to the city's highlights, with photographs of attractions and sights from the CN Tower to Union Station. The guide reveals each of the city's many distinct neighbourhoods and the tranquil Toronto islands. There are discriminating reviews of the best places to eat, drink and stay, plus coverage of the arts scene with features on Toronto's literary and theatre heritage. There is also extensive coverage given to day trips from the city, including Niagara Falls and the Severn Sound. Sir Henry Pellatt Charlie Oreskovitch, 1980. Reeve, Michael Windover, 2023-09-01. Leading architect E.J. Lennox designed Casa Loma for the flamboyant Sir Henry Pellatt and Mary Lady Pellatt as an enormous castellated mansion that overlooked the booming metropolis of Toronto. The first scholarly book dedicated to this Canadian landmark, Casa Loma situates the famous house on the hill within Toronto's architectural, urban and cultural history. Casa Loma was not only an outsized home for the self-appointed Lord Toronto, but a statement of Canada's association with empire, an assertion of the country's British legacy. During and after the Pellatts' occupation, Casa Loma was a major landmark and it has since infiltrated the iconography and collective memory of the metropolis. The reception of Casa Loma, variously loved and abhorred by Torontonians, reflects many of Toronto's major aspirations and anxieties about itself as a modern city. Across ten chapters, this book charts the history of Casa Loma from the purchase of the estate atop Davenport Ridge in 1903 and its construction from

1906 through to its sale and the dispersal of its contents in 1924 its subsequent life as a hotel and finally its transformation into one of the city's major entertainment venues Casa Loma brings to light a wealth of hitherto unpublished archival images and documentation of the house's visual and material culture weaving together a textured account of the design use and life of this unique building over the course of the twentieth century
