Teilhard De Chardin Scientist Seer:

Teilhard de Chardin, Scientist and Seer Charles Earle Raven, 1962 Teilhard de Chardin David Grumett, 2005 Pierre Teilhard de Chardin 1881 1955 has been regarded for too long as an esoteric thinker who evacuates theology by subjecting it to scientific theory There is an urgent need to reclaim him as a French catholic theologian with intellectual roots in the early twentieth century Teilhard s imaginative and inspiring work is grounded in the constructive use of biblical and patristic motifs and in his own life experiences of war exile and scientific endeavour From these he develops a distinctive philosophical theology which combines elements frequently assigned to the seperate domains of philosophy of religion systematic theology and mysticism Teilhard provides a detailed theology of human embodiment and natural substances whilst his theories of human action passion vision and virtue offer suggestive resources to pastoral theology His evolutionary cosmology and social democratic politics are discussed in their historical context and the significance of his work for the ongoing dialogue between science and religion is assessed Teilhard De Chardin and Eastern Religions U. M. King, 1977

Thomas Aquinas and Teilhard de Chardin Donald J. Goergen, 2022-10-21 In an increasingly divided and secularized world in an age of unbelief we yearn for increased unity for a sense of the transcendent for a humanism that does not force one to choose between God and the world This humanism requires an integration of ancient wisdom with modern learning or one might say faith and reason religion and science Christology and cosmology As the Gospel of Matthew puts it the sage goes into the storehouse to bring out both something old and something new To this Christian humanism both Thomas Aquinas and Pierre Teilhard de Chardin have significant contributions to make One is not forced to choose between them but rather to see in these two visionaries one medieval one modern complementary insights One philosophically precise the other scientifically trained they challenge us to look again at our search for wholeness for holiness Can we see something of what they saw Can we seek something of what they sought Thomas Aquinas and Teilhard de Chardin Donald J. Flannery O'Connor and Teilhard de Chardin Steven Robert Watkins, 2009 Flannery O'Connor the renowned short story writer lived and fought a tumultuous battle with lupus erythematosus most of her adult life. In her last five years she sought insightful and helpful sources to alleviate her struggle with the disease. Among these sources were the ideas and thoughts of a Jesuit paleontologist mystic by the name of Pierre Teilhard de Chardin an individual who opened doors of witness to the secular world and attracted suspicious questioning from his Catholic superiors. Like a moth drawn to a flame Flannery O'Connor a devoted Thomist increasingly admired the ideas of Teilhard de Chardin to the point that she incorporated his ideas into her last six short stories in the collection Everything That Rises Must Converge. This book adds significantly to the neglected study of Teilhard de Chardin's influence in the later literary development of Flannery O'Connor. This book would be a valuable asset to students and scholars focusing on American literature Southern literature twentieth century Southern female writers and Flannery O'Connor

The Phenomenon of Teilhard David H. Lane, 1996 New Age writer of the popular Aquarian Conspiracy Marilyn Ferguson observed that many of the leading lights of the New Age movement claim Teilhard as one of the most influential persons in their lives. Other influences acknowledged include C. G. Jung Aldous Huxley Swami Mukhtananda Thomas Merton Werner Erhard and Maharishi Yogi. Indeed of the 185 New Age leaders surveyed Teilhard was the most frequently mentioned of any person who had most influenced their thinking. If this is the case then if we are to understand the New Age movement properly it behooves us to take a careful and critical look at Teilhard de Chardin. David Lane has done precisely this in a clear well documented and penetrating way. In this crucial book David Lane lays bare the philosophical theological and scientific failures of Teilhard's New Age enterprise. In a highly documented and insightful scrutiny of Teilhard's cosmic evolution Lane unveils the apostate Christian roots of one of the most important forerunners of the New Age movement. This is one of the most significant and serious treatments of the modern roots of the New Age in print

An Abrahamic Theology for Science Kenneth L. Vaux, 2007-01-01 Kenneth Vaux advocates an Abrahamic theology as a dynamic and ethical axis for science and technology and argues for its continuing salience for a vital and humane science. He demonstrates a historical correlation between an Abrahamic theological tradition monotheism and venturism and the rise of science. Vaux illustrates these developments in the work of six scientists Avicenna Boyle Schweitzer and Teilhard as well as contemporaries Amartya Sen and Leon Kass. In the course of his discussion Vaux engages the contemporary dialogue between religion and science

Eschatology and the Technological Future Michael S. Burdett, 2014-12-05 The rapid advancement of technology has led to an explosion of speculative theories about what the future of humankind may look like. These technological futurisms have arisen from significant advances in the fields of nanotechnology biotechnology and information technology and are drawing growing scrutiny from the philosophical and theological communities. This text seeks to contextualize the growing literature on the cultural philosophical and religious implications of technological growth by considering technological futurisms such as transhumanism in the context of the long historical tradition of technological dreaming Michael Burdett traces the latent religious sources of our contemporary technological imagination by looking at visionary approaches to technology and the future in seminal technological utopias and science fiction and draws on past theological responses to the technological future with Pierre Teilhard de Chardin and Jacques Ellul Burdett's argument arrives at a contemporary Christian response to transhumanism based around the themes of possibility and promise by turning to the works of Richard Kearney Eberhard Jüngel and Jürgen Moltmann Throughout the author highlights points of correspondence and divergence between technological futurisms and the Judeo Christian understanding of the future
