Telling the Whole Story John C. Holbert, 2013-03-01 Telling the Whole Story is both a book about preaching and reading the narratives of the Hebrew Bible John C Holbert PhD in Hebrew Bible was a longtime teacher of preaching and Hebrew Bible at Perkins School of Theology Southern Methodist University having retired in 2012 after thirty three years In this volume he combines his two skills of careful narrative reading and imaginative story preaching to offer the first comprehensive look at this particular kind of sermon proclamation The reader will also find here an introduction to the long history of story preaching in the history of the church as well as a primer both in ways to read the narratives more effectively and ways to preach several varieties of story sermons At the heart of this book four narratives from the Hebrew Bible are exegeted and are accompanied by four story sermons based on those texts Genesis 2 3 1 Samuel 15 Judges 4 and Jonah The goal of the book is to help preachers who are looking for effective ways to proclaim the gospel using narrative texts from the Hebrew Bible to allow the rich stories of the texts to sound their ancient truth to the modern world

The Story of Narrative Preaching Mike Graves, 2015-03-02 Forty years ago the one thing that could be said about sermons was they were biblical Unfortunately they were sometimes tedious too Narrative preaching aimed to fix that advocating for a dynamic experience of the text over against a static lecture Preaching could be like the parables of Jesus intriguing and compelling The Story of Narrative Preaching is the story of seven students who are enrolled in Professor Freeman s preaching course Once a new trend narrative preaching is now older than most of them As Professor Freeman notes two things went wrong with narrative styles over time the church became biblically and theologically illiterate and the promised stress on experience didn t always measure up to the weight of the gospel Readers are invited to sit in on the class to reflect on the expositional nature of preaching and to experience the stories of some modern storytellers Flannery O Connor Alice Walker and others to see what they might teach us about narratives of depth In the end we discover what may be the most important word in preaching

Narrative Reading, Narrative Preaching Joel B. Green, Michael Pasquarello, III, 2003-12-01 There is often an unfortunate division between the technical work of biblical scholars and the practical work of preachers who construct sermons each week These two fields of study which ought to be mutually informed and supportive are more often practically divided by divergent methods interests and goals Narrative Reading Narrative Preaching aims to bridge that divide Using narrative as an organizing theme the contributors work through the New Testament offering examples of how interpretation can rightly inform proclamation Three pairs of chapters feature an exemplary reading by a New Testament scholar followed by a sermon informed by that reading Introductory and concluding chapters provide guidance for application of the model Pastors and seminarians will find here a uniquely practical work that will help them with both the reading and preaching of Scripture

Understanding and Preaching Narrative Roger Senior, 2012-03 Over half of Scripture is narrative in form Is there more to it than entertaining stories Are we perhaps missing some of the deeper meaning In this book Roger Senior gets to grips with the unique characteristics of biblical narrative by an examination of Luke's gospel He uses these insights to help preachers prepare sermons in which the original narrative power and impact of the biblical text is maintained At the end of most chapters are questions which may profitably be studied individually or in groups Rev Dr Roger Senior has worked in East Asia with OMF International for almost thirty years He has trained pastors and seminary students in expository preaching in Korea Mongolia and Malaysia At the Union Bible Theological College in Mongolia he taught Biblical Studies Hermeneutics and Homiletics and also worked as college principal He is currently on the faculty of the Malaysia Bible Seminary

Feasting in a Famine of the Word Mark W. Birkholz, Jacob Corzine, Jonathan Mumme, 2016-02-16 The Lord warns of a famine of hearing the word of the Lord Amos 8:11 Has this warning come to pass in our day? There is no shortage of preachers but how often do they miss the mark in actually delivering the word of God to their hearers leaving them hungry? The authors of these essays seek to equip preachers with resources to offer their hearers a rich feast from the word of the Lord. Writing from a Lutheran perspective contributors from across the globe provide a fresh approach to preaching. These authors represent seasoned pastors and professors as well as young scholars. All are actively preaching and teaching God's word on a regular basis. This book covers a wide range of topics relating to preaching from the scriptural background and hermeneutical issues to historical examples of notable preachers and also practical guides to crafting and delivering a sermon.
