Telling Travels:

Women and the Travel Guidebook, 1870-c.1910 Jasmine Proteau, 2025-01-31 Although the printing giants of John Murray and Karl Baedeker dominated the nineteenth century travel guidebook market women were important producers and consumers of guides This book argues that in the late nineteenth century women were key cultural producers of travel guidebooks an important form of non fiction mass media during an upsurge and shift in European travel and tourism While a limited number of studies have identified a small number of female authored guidebooks this is the first to take a broad view of women s place within the guidebook market situating female authored texts within a large and competitive book market to understand the role of gender in guidebook publication Given Italy s historic religious cultural and artistic significance to the Anglophone world guides to Italy were perhaps the most numerous among all the guidebooks targeted at travellers from the United Kingdom and North America in the nineteenth century and therefore form a key focus of this study Telling True Tales of Islamic Lands Julia Schleck, 2011-06 Travelling Heroes Robin Lane Fox, 2008-09-04 This remarkable and daringly original book proposes a new way of thinking about the Greeks and their myths in the age of the great Homeric hymns It combines a lifetime s familiarity with Greek literature and history with the latest archeological discoveries and the author s own journeys to the main sites in the story to describe how particular Greeks of the eighth century BC travelled east and west around the Mediterranean and how their extraordinary journeys shaped their ideas of their gods and heroes It gathers together stories and echoes from many different ancient cultures not just the Greek Assyria Egypt the Phoenician traders and ranges from Mesopotamia to the Rio Tinto at Huelva in modern Portugal Its central point is the Jebel Aqra the great mountain on the north Syrian coast which Robin Lane Fox dubs the southern Olympus and around which much of the action of the book turns Robin Lane Fox rejects the fashionable view of Homer and his near contemporary Hesiod as poets who owed a direct debt to texts and poems from the near East and by following the trail of the Greek travellers shows that they were rather in debt to their own countrymen With characteristic flair he reveals how these travellers progenitors of tales which have inspired writers and historians for thousands of years understood the world before the beginnings of philosophy and western thought Other Routes Tabish Khair, 2005 brings new insights into the colonial relationship while challenging the unspoken temptation that this was a distinctly European period Simon Gikandi Other Routes collects important primary work by travel writers from Asia and Africa in English translation An introduction by Tabish Khair discusses travel literature as a genre the perception of travel and writing about travel as a European privilege and the emergence of new writings that show that travel has been a human occupation that crosses time and culture This original and significant book will interest armchair travelers and others in views of people and places away from the European traveler s gaze Selections include The Travels of a Japanese Monk c 838 Al Abdari the Disgruntled Traveller c 1290 A Korean Official s Account of China 1488 The Poetry of Basho s Road 1689 Malabari A Love Hate Affair with the British 1890

Story/telling Bronwen Ann Levy, Ffion Murphy, 2001 Story telling is an eclectic and fascinating collection of stories and stories about stories With passion and verve some of Australia s finest writers range through vast territory exploring new directions in film and media enigmas and creativity histories of mothering narratives of indigenous and migrant experience folk country and multicultural music traditions and dilemmas of interpretation These writers appreciate the power of stories for good and ill They interrogate narratives of Australia s past and present and call for new stories for changing times We hear voices raised one moment subdued the next as if we were sitting in the Forum tent at the Woodford Festival knowing that here and just beyond in paint dance music and words stories are happening in delicious abundance The Journey

Maria Ruiz Scaperlanda, Michael Scaperlanda, 2004 Drawing deeply on their own experience of consecrated travel the Scaperlandas guide readers into the heart of the pilgrim experience Much of their advice is practical What are the most promising pilgrimage destinations How can families go on pilgrimage How can vacations and tourism be transformed into a journey of pilgrimage They give special attention to practices and attitudes that can make all travel sacred Their depth of understanding enables readers to connect the inner and Out in Public Alison Piepmeier, 2004 Images of the corseted domestic white middle class female and the black woman as slave mammy or jezebel loom large in studies of nineteenth century womanhood despite recent critical work exploring alternatives to those images In Out in Public Traveling

Beyond Her Sphere Bess Beatty, 2016-09-08 A history of American women challenging domesticity by touring Europe in the 19th and early 20th centuries The nineteenth century ideal of domesticity identified home as women s proper sphere but the ideal was frequently challenged profoundly so when woman left home and country to travel in foreign lands This book explores the reasons for and ramifications of women making a Grand Tour a trip to Europe between 1814 and 1914 this century between major European wars witnessed the golden age of American Grand Tours Men and women alike were inspired by a Euro centric education that valued the Old World as the fountainhead of their civilization Reaching Europe necessitated an Ocean crossing a disorienting time taking women far from domestic comfort Once abroad American women had to juggle accustomed norms of behavior with the demands of travel and customs of foreign lands Wearing proper attire even when hiking in the Alps coping with unfamiliar languages grappling with ever changing rules about customs and passports traveling alone these were just some of the challenges women faced when traveling Some traveled with their husband others with female relatives and friends and a few entirely alone Traveling companions had to agree on where to stay when and where to dine how to travel and where to go The sinking of the Titanic in 1912 made clear that even in the twentieth century a Grand Tour involved risk Because more women survived than men some insisted that the Titanic s example should curb female independence However a growing number of women continued making a Grand Tour for the next two years It was the outbreak of war in Europe in 1914 that temporarily brought an end to a century of female Grand Tours Beatty s ability to weave the experiences of hundreds of American women on the Grand Tour in Europe into a consistent narrative is per se a remarkable feat But the author does much more than that She uses the journey as trope to represent the long and difficult process of women s emancipation in its several cultural psychological social and political dimensions Susanna Delfino Professor of American History retired University of Genoa Italy Secret Journeys Marilyn C. Brooks,2023-03-24 What would it mean for American and African American literary studies if readers took the spirituality and travel of Black women seriously With Spirit Deep Recovering the Sacred in Black Women s Travel Tisha Brooks addresses this question by focusing on three nineteenth century Black women writers who merged the spiritual and travel narrative genres Zilpha Elaw Amanda Smith and Nancy Prince Brooks hereby challenges the divides between religious and literary studies and between coerced and free passages within travel writing studies to reveal meaningful new connections in Black women s writings Bringing together both sacred and secular texts Spirit Deep uncovers an enduring spiritual legacy of movement and power that Black women have claimed for themselves in opposition to the single story of the Black female body as captive monstrous and strange Spirit Deep thus addresses the marginalization of Black women from larger conversations about travel writing demonstrating the continuing impact of their spirituality and movements in our present world Extra- and Non-Documentary Writing in the Canon of Formative Judaism, Vol. 3 Jacob

Neusner, 2001 Rabbinic literature in its formative age from the Mishnah through the Bavli ca 100 600 c e is comprised by documents that relate to one another in three ways First they are autonomous and self contained second they are connected with one another and third they are continuous with one another Some point to the connections in the form of parallel versions of sayings or stories as evidence against the theory that the documents possess integrity Volume Three reprises Neusner's The Peripatetic Saying The Problem of the Thrice Told Tale in Talmudic Literature Chico 1985 Scholars Press for Brown Judaic Studies It responds to critics of the documentary reading of the canonical documents of Rabbinic Judaism in the formative age who make much of the variations in manuscript readings of sayings and stories These variations are so different from one another that so the critics maintain they call into question the very conception of a document Each manuscript let alone each compilation has its own representation of a given compilation there are no determinate documents That is because the documentary program of rhetoric topic and logic of coherent discourse makes no impact on sayings or stories that circulate beyond the limits of any one document All we have are diverse versions of we know not what For the sample covered in these pages claims that parallels move from document to document vastly exaggerate the range of variation The variant readings are paltry and pointless just like the parallels to which Volumes One and Two are devoted
