Natural Stone and Architectural Heritage Giovanna Antonella Dino, Lola Pereira, Lidia Catarino, 2019-09-23 This book is made up of contributions dealing with heritage stones from different countries around the world The stones are described as well as their use in vernacular and contemporaneous architecture Heritage stones are those stones that have special significance in human culture Examples include some very important stones that have been either neglected because they are no longer extracted or stones that have great significance in commercial terms but knowledge of their national and or international heritage has not been well documented In this collection of articles we have tried to spread awareness of architectural heritage around the world the natural stones that have been used in its construction and the need to preserve historical quarries that once provided the source of such stones Historical quarries are linked to regional culture and tradition Because of the specific technical and aesthetical characteristics of heritage stones which have lasted for centuries these historical quarries should be preserved to be able to use the stones for the proper restoration of monuments and historical buildings to avoid negative actions that can be observed in many places in the restoration of buildings which are some times part of World Heritage sites The final intention of this book is to continuously grow the interest on this fascinating subject of heritage stones

Practicing Intertextuality Max J. Lee,B. J. Oropeza,2021-10-29 Practicing Intertextuality attempts something bold and ambitious to map both the interactions and intertextual techniques used by New Testament authors as they engaged the Old Testament and the discourses of their fellow Jewish and Greco Roman contemporaries This collection of essays functions collectively as a handbook describing the relationship between ancient authors their texts and audience capacity to detect allusions and echoes Aimed for biblical studies majors graduate and seminary students and academics the book catalogues how New Testament authors used the very process of interacting with their Scriptures that is the Masoretic Text the Septuagint and their variants and the texts of their immediate environment including popular literary works treatises rhetorical handbooks papyri inscriptions artifacts and graffiti for the very production of their message Each chapter demonstrates a type of interaction that is doctrinal reformulations common ancient ethical and religious usage refutation irenic appropriation and competitive appropriation describes the intertextual technique s employed by the ancient author and explains how these were practiced in Jewish Greco Roman or early Christian circles Seventeen scholars each an expert in their respective fields have contributed studies which illuminate the biblical interpretation of the Gospels the Pauline letters and General Epistles through the process of intertextuality The National Geographic Magazine ,1920 Indexes kept up to date with supplements Sudan Notes and Records ,1929 The American Art Review ,1880 Connecting Communities in Archaic Greece Michael Loy,2023-08-03 This is a new history of Greece in the seventh and sixth centuries BC written for the twenty first century It brings together archaeological data from over 100 years of Big Dig excavation in Greece employing experimental data analysis techniques from the digital humanities to identify new patterns about Archaic Greece By modelling trade routes political alliances and the formation of personal and state networks the book sheds new light on how exactly the early communities of the Aegean basin were plugged into one another Returning to the long debated question of what is a polis this study also challenges Classical Archaeology more generally that the discipline has at its fingertips significant datasets that can contribute to substantive historical debate and that what can be done for the next generation of scholarship is to re engage with old material in a new way Ars Quatuor Coronatorum ,1893 Memoir of the Egypt Exploration Fund ,1905 Stone, Walls and Paths Seock Jae Yim,2005-01-01 Administration Reports Ceylon,1928 Includes reports of the government agents of the various districts as well as reports of departments 1 & 2 Kings, a Commentary James E. Smith, Ph.D.,2018-12-15 An introduction to the Old Testament books of 1 2 Kings is followed by a verse by verse commentary on the text Phenomenology of Film Shawn Loht,2017-08-25 Phenomenology of Film A Heideggerian Account of the Film Experience uses the philosophy of Martin Heidegger as a framework for addressing key issues in the philosophy of film This study grapples with the question of how we can reconcile film as a popular entertainment medium with Heidegger s own various critiques of popular media and culture throughout his career Shawn Loht also explores topics such as the ontology of film and moving images the phenomenological character of the viewer experience film conceived as an art medium and the function of films as vehicles for philosophical thought He further discusses important concepts from Heidegger s philosophy Dasein existentiality world art and poetry and the nature of philosophy The first four chapters take up these issues from a theoretical perspective The remaining chapters provide robust application of the theoretical material to the films of three contemporary filmmakers Terrence Malick Michael Haneke and David Gordon Green As the first single author monograph that takes up Heidegger s relevance to film Phenomenology of Film will be of particular interest to philosophers of film and specialists of film and media studies working in the intersection of phenomenology and film or phenomenological approaches to issues in popular culture The Architect ,1926 The Ante-Nicene Fathers: Gospel of Peter, Diatessaron of Tatian, [etc.], Apology of Aristides, [etc.], Origen's Commentary on John, books I-X, and Commentary on Matthew, books I, II, and X-XIV ,1903 Understanding the New Testament and the End Times, Second Edition Rob Dalrymple,2018-04-16 Many evangelicals have come to embrace a populist eschatology that has neither the support of the historical church nor of the scholarly world today For some this has led to a disillusionment with eschatological speculations For others the results are apathy and a failure to understand the mission of God's people. This is tragic. For when the entirety of the New Testament is read and understood from an eschatological perspective, the grand narrative of Scripture and its fulfillment in Jesus comes clearly into focus. A proper framework for understanding eschatology directly correlates to a proper understanding of the mission of God's people who are themselves carrying forth the biblical story as we approach the New Jerusalem. To fail to comprehend eschatology is to fail to comprehend our mission. This book has two objectives. First, to provide a proper hermeneutical framework from which we may discern a biblical eschatological worldview. Second, to demonstrate that a proper eschatological framework relates to the mission of God's people and the demand for holiness. Thus eschatology matters. New Imperial Series, 1897
