Ten Canadian Plays:

Canadian Plays from Hart House Theatre Vincent Massey, 1927 The Great Canadian Book of Lists Randy Ray, Mark Kearney, 1999-09-01 Who were Canada's ten most romantic couples of the twentieth century? What were this country's worst disasters, its ten best beers, and its most controversial works of art in the past one hundred years? Where will you find the most haunted places in Canada, and who are Canada's greatest heroes, its most accomplished athletes, and its most despised criminals? The Great Canadian Book of Lists chronicles a century of achievements, trends, important and influential people, and fascinating events that have shaped this country as it heads into a new millennium. Award-winning writers Mark Kearney and Randy Ray, who have delighted readers with their bestselling books The Great Canadian Trivia Book and The Great Canadian Trivia Book 2, turn the spotlight on the twentieth century to determine the best, worst, and most significant happenings in our lives. Not content with supplying a shopping list of items about Canada, Kearney and Ray provide plenty of details to support why certain people and events are included on the lists. And their statistical snapshots, comparing a variety of societal trends over different years, show readers how Canada has changed in the course of the past century. You'll also learn how experts from the worlds of science, sports, lifestyle, literature, and politics rate the personalities and events that have made Canada what it is today. And several guest celebrities weigh in with lists they've created exclusively for The Great Canadian Book of Lists. Enlightening, controversial, and fun, The Great Canadian Book of Lists is bound to start as many arguments as it settles. Was Guy Lafleur a better hockey player than Rocket Richard? Why are rower Silken Laumann and actress Margot Kidder on the same list? What were the best Canadian novels of the twentieth century? And what are some key milestones achieved by Canadian women, medical doctors, inventors, and musicians? Innovations and flops, successes and failures, comebacks and breakthroughs, record setters and trend setters: You'll find them all in The Great Canadian Book of Lists.

Canadian Plays from Hart House Theatre, V. 1- Vincent Massey, 1926 Canadian Drama, 1990 A Collection of Canadian Plays Rolf Kalman, 1972 Marsh Hay by Merrill Denison The Unreasonable Act of Julian Waterman by Ron Taylor The Twisted Loaf Vicky by Grahame Woods The Vice President by John Schull Canadian Performance Documents and Debates Anthony J. Vickery, Glen F. Nichols, Allana C. Lindgren, 2022-10-06 Canadian Performance Documents and Debates provides insight into performance activities from the seventeenth century to the early 1970s and probes important yet vexing questions about Canada as a country and a concept. The volume collects playscripts and archival material to explore what these documents tell us about the values, debates, and priorities of artists and their audiences from the past 400 years. Analyses throughout rethink the significance of theatre, dance, opera, circus, and other performance genres and events. This landmark collection challenges readers to reconsider Canadian theatre and performance history. Foreword by Jerry Wasserman. Contributors: Clarence S. Bayne, Kym Bird, Justin A. Blum, Amy Bowring, Jill Carter, Jenn Cole, Cynthia Cooper, Heather Davis, Fisch, Moira J. Day, Ray, Ellenwood, Alan Filewod, Howard Fink, Liza Giffen, J. Paul Halferty.

Committing Theatre Alan Filewod,2011-09-26 Turn Up the Contrast Mary Jane Miller,2011-11-01 From Shakespeare to cop shows sitcoms to docudramas for over three decades the CBC has presented viewers with every variety of television drama and has become Canada s closest equivalent to a national theatre Turn Up the Contrast is the first book to explore the content of Canadian television drama and is both a critical analysis and a survey history of how Canadians have used the medium to tell themselves their own stories As a part of her research Mary Jane Miller watched thousands of hours of television sampling series and viewing in their entirety shorter programs such as movies and mini series Asking a variety of questions she selected a number of programs for detailed analysis and devotees of The Beachcombers King of Kensington Seeing Things Cariboo Country Wojeck or A Gift to Last will be pleased to find their favourites among those discussed at length A University of British Columbia Press CBC Enterprises Co Publication Indigenous North American Drama Birgit Däwes,2013-01-01 Traces the historical dimensions of Native North American drama using a critical perspective The God of Gods: A Canadian Play Carroll Aikins,2016-04-14 Carroll Aikins s play The God of Gods 1919 has been out of print since its first and only edition in 1927 This critical edition not only revives the work for readers and scholars alike it also provides historical context for Aikins s often overlooked contributions to theatre in the 1920s and presents research on the different staging techniques in the play s productions Much of the play s historical significance lies in Aikins s vital role in Canadian theatre as director of the Home Theatre in British Columbia 1920 22 and artistic director of Toronto s Hart House Theatre 1927 29 Wright reveals The God of Gods as a modernist Canadian work with overt influences from European and American modernisms Aikins s work has been compared to European modernists Gordon Craig Adolphe Appia and Jacques Copeau Importantly he was also intimately connected with modernist Canadian artists and the Group of Seven who painted the scenery for Hart House Theatre The God of Gods contributes to current studies of theatrical modernism by exposing the primitivist aesthetics and theosophical beliefs promoted by some of Canada s art circles at the turn of the twentieth century Whereas Aikins is clearly progressive in his political critique of materialism and organized religion he presents a conservative dramatization of the noble savage as hero The critical introduction examines how The God of Gods engages with Nietzschean and theosophical philosophies in order to dramatize an Aboriginal lover artist figure that critiques religious idols materialism and violence Ultimately The God of Gods offers a look into how English and Canadian theatre audiences responded to primitivism theatrical modernism and theosophical tenets during the 1920s Canadian Moving Picture Digest ,1926 Theatre Matters Jane Plastow,Richard Boon,1998-12-10 This book focuses on how theatre can make and has made positive political and social interventions When Television was Young Paul Rutherford,1990-01-01 A decade after the first Canadian telecasts in September 1952 TV had conquered the country Why was the little screen so enthusiastically welcomed by Canadians Was television in its early years more innovative less commercial and more Canadian than current offerings In this study of what is often called the golden age of television Paul Rutherford has set out to dispel some cherished myths and to resurrect the memory of a noble experiment in the making of Canadian culture He focuses on three key aspects of the story The first is the development of the national service including the critical acclaim won by Radio Canada the struggles of the CBC's English service to provide mass entertainment that could compete with the Hollywood product and the effective challenge of private television to the whole dream of public broadcasting The second deals with the wealth of made in Canada programming available to please and inform viewers even commercials receive close attention Altogether Rutherford argues Canadian programming reflected as well as enhanced the prevailing values and assumptions of the mainstream The final focus is on McLuhan's Question What happens to society when a new medium of communications enters the picture Rutherford's findings cast doubt upon the common presumptions about the awesome power of television Television in Canada Rutherford concludes amounts to a failed revolution It never realized the ambitions of its masters or the fears of its critics Its course was shaped not only by the will of the government the power of commerce and the empire of Hollywood but also by the desires and habits of the viewers The Duncan Campbell Scott Symposium K. P. Stich, 1980
