Ten Thousand Years Archaeology In Manitoba:

Ten Thousand Years Walter M. Hlady,1970 Ten Thousand Years Walter M. Hlady,1970 Archaeology and Prehistory of Southern Alberta as Reflected by Ceramics: Volume 2 William J. Byrne,1973-01-01 This three volume monograph contains a detailed review of the aboriginal ceramics of southern Alberta as well as an interpretation of late prehistoric protohistoric and ethnohistoric developments on the Canadian Plains as reflected by an analysis of these ceramics Published in English 1978-1979 Cultural Resource Investigations Along the Middle Sheyenne River Valley Richard A. Fox,1980 Rock Art and Regional Identity Jamie Hampson,2016-06-16 Why did the ancient artists create paintings and engravings What did the images mean This careful study of rock art motifs in the Trans Pecos area of Texas and a small area in South Africa demonstrates that there are archaeological and anthropological ways of accessing the past in order to investigate and explain the significance of rock art motifs Using two disparate regions shows the possibility of comparative rock art studies and highlights the importance of regional studies and regional variations This is an ideal resource for students and researchers Hunters of the Recent Past Leslie B. Davis,Brian O.K. Reeves,2014-10-30 One of a series of more than 20 volumes resulting from the World Archaeological Congress September 1986 which brought together archaeologists and anthropologists from many parts of the world academics from contingent disciplines and non academics from a wide range of cultural backgrounds This book considers prehistoric and more recent manifestations of human hunting behaviour with a general emphasis on communal hunting It demonstrates that the combination of archaeological ethnographic and ethnohistorical approaches provides a researched basis for consideration of the topic on worldwide regional and local scales It includes theoretical and methodological issues within a context of enquiry original data presentation and discussion It is of interest to archaeologists anthropologists and ethnohistorians The Plains Cree John S. Milloy,1990-05-01 The first economic military and diplomatic history of the Plains Cree from contact with the Europeans in the 1670s to the disappearance of the buffalo from Cree lands by the 1870s focussing on military and trade relations between 1790 and 1870 Milloy describes three distinct eras each characterized by a paramount motive for war the wars of migration and territory the horse wars during the golden years of Plains Indian life and buffalo wars which mark the trail to the reserves Intimately linked to each era was a particular trade pattern and a military system that linked the Cree with other Plains tribes and non Natives By tracing these themes Milloy charts the ability of the Cree to serve their economic interests by forging alliances or undertaking military or diplomatic offensives The Casper Site George C Frison,2013-12-31 George Frison s report on the 10 000 year old Casper Site helped establish how large animal communal kill sites should be excavated analyzed and reported With his background in ranching and hunting Frison knows more about large animals than any other archaeologist In The Casper Site Frison began to share that knowledge as well as the techniques of bone bed excavation that and the book s interdisciplinary approach make it a landmark in paleoindian archaeology and faunal analysis

As Marcel Kornfeld writes in his new introduction One of Frison's outstanding contributions to Great Plains prehistory has been in the arena of bison studies and bone beds in particular and Casper is one of its finest examples Originally published by Academic Press in 1974 Praise from readers The Casper site is one in a long tradition of bison procurement site studies by George Frison This site typifies the use of the parabolic sand dune for bison trapping The suite of analyses employed set the standard for kill site archaeology on the Plains and around the globe Leland C Bement Oklahoma Archeological Survey With astonishing fidelity the events of an ancient bison kill are uncovered from the rolling sands of Wyoming That these remarkable events happened 10 000 years ago and yet we see them so clearly today is testimony to the skill of Frison and his team of researchers A landmark publication Jack W Brink Royal Alberta Museum The brainchild of a remarkable archaeologist and a benchmark in integrative archaeological science putting to work innovations in spatial analysis experiments in technology and vertebrate taphonomy hunter gatherer ethnoarchaeology geology and zooarchaeology One cannot help but sense the squeak of sand churned by desperate hooves when reading this classic study Mary C Stiner University of Arizona

Prehistory of Lake Athabasca James Vallière Wright, 1975-01-01 The position of Lake Athabasca relative to the Plains Boreal Forest and Arctic physiographic zones which have changed through time in response to climatic fluctuations has resulted in cultures adapted to these three zones occupying areas of the lake during certain periods During the later prehistory the western half of the lake was exploited by a Plains derived bison hunting culture whereas the eastern half of the lake was exploited by a Boreal Forest derived caribou hunting culture Published in English

Of Men and Herds in Barrenland Prehistory Bryan H. C. Gordon, 1975-01-01 This study attempts to elucidate the temporal and spatial interrelationships between the barrenland Pre Dorset peoples climates and caribou herds in the period 1500 700 B C Items such as discreteness of herds and human bands band movements and communication and differing cultural patterns as evidenced in artifacts are discussed All are used in the formulation of the discrete band discrete herd relationship Published in English

Muskegowuck Athinuwick Victor P. Lytwyn, 2002-03-06 The original people of the Hudson Bay lowlands often known as the Lowland Cree and known to themselves as Muskegowuck Athinuwick were among the first Aboriginal peoples in northwestern North America to come into contact with Europeans Muskegowuck Athinuwick challenges long held misconceptions about the Lowland Cree and illustrates how historians have often misunderstood the role and resourcefulness of Aboriginal peoples during the fur trade era Although their own oral histories tell that the Lowland Cree have lived in the region for thousands of years many historians have portrayed the Lowland Cree as relative newcomers who were dependent on the Hudson's Bay Company fur traders by the 1700s In Muskegowuck Athinuwick historical geographer Victor Lytwyn shows instead that the Lowland Cree had a well established traditional society that far from being dependent on Europeans was instrumental in the survival of traders throughout the network of HBC forts during the 18th and 19th centuries
