Tepper Isn't Going Out Calvin Trillin, 2002-01-15 Murray Tepper would say that he is an ordinary New Yorker who is simply trying to read the newspaper in peace But he reads while sitting behind the wheel of his parked car and his car always seems to be in a particularly desirable parking spot Not surprisingly he is regularly interrupted by drivers who want to know if he is going out Tepper isn't going out Why not His explanations tend to be rather literal the indisputable fact for instance that he has twenty minutes left on the meter Tepper's behavior sometimes irritates the people who want his spot Is that where you live Is that car rent controlled It also irritates the mayor Frank Ducavelli known in tabloid headlines as Il Duce who sees Murray Tepper as a harbinger of what His Honor always calls the forces of disorder But once New Yorkers become aware of Tepper some of them begin to suspect that he knows something they don't know And an ever increasing number of them are willing to line up for the opportunity to sit in his car with him and find out Tepper Isn't Going Out is a wise and witty story of an ordinary man who perhaps innocently changes the world around him BONUS This edition contains an excerpt from Calvin Trillin's Quite Enough of Calvin Trillin people are accustomed to buying these spicy sausages and polishing them off in the parking lot Cajun boudin not only doesn't get outside the state it usually doesn't even get home In New York Trillin even tries to use a glorious local specialty the bagel to lure his daughters back from California Feeding a Yen is a delightful reminder of why New York magazine called Calvin Trillin our funniest food writer Paved Paradise Henry Grabar,2024-05-07 Shortlisted for the Z calo Book Prize Named one of the best books of the year by The New Yorker and The New Republic Consistently entertaining and often downright funny The New Yorker Wry and revelatory The New York Times A romp packed with tales of anger violence theft lust greed political chicanery and transportation policy gone wrong highly entertaining The Los Angeles Times An entertaining enlightening and utterly original investigation into one of the most quietly influential forces in modern American life the humble parking spot Parking quite literally has a death grip on America each year a shocking number of Americans kill one another over parking spots and we routinely do ridiculous things for parking contorting our professional social and financial lives to get a spot Since the advent of the car we have deformed our cities in a Sisyphean quest for car storage and as a result much of the nation's most valuable real estate is now devoted to empty vehicles Parking determines the design of new buildings and the fate of old ones traffic patterns and the viability of transit neighborhood politics and municipal finance and the overall quality of public space Is this really the best use of our finite resources Is parking really more important than everything else In a beguiling and absurdly hilarious mix of history politics and reportage Slate staff writer Henry Grabar brilliantly surveys the nation's parking crisis revealing how the compulsion for car storage has exacerbated some of our most acute problems from housing affordability to the accelerating global climate disaster and ultimately how we can free our cities from parking's cruel yoke Straphanger Taras Grescoe,2012-04-24 Taras Grescoe rides the rails all over the world and makes an elegant and impassioned case for the imminent end of car culture and the coming transportation revolution I am proud to call myself a straphanger writes Taras Grescoe The perception of public transportation in America is often unflattering a squalid last resort for those with one too many drunk driving charges too poor to afford insurance or too decrepit to get behind the wheel of a car Indeed a century of auto-centric culture and city planning has left most of the country with public transportation that is underfunded ill maintained and ill conceived But as the demand for petroleum is fast outpacing the world's supply a revolution in transportation is under way Grescoe explores the ascendance of the straphangers the growing number of people who rely on public transportation to go about the business of their daily lives On a journey that takes him around the world from New York to Moscow Paris Copenhagen Tokyo Bogot Phoenix Portland Vancouver and Philadelphia Grescoe profiles public transportation here and abroad highlighting the people and ideas that may help undo the damage that car-centric planning has done to our cities and create convenient affordable and sustainable urban transportation and better city living for all The New New Journalism Robert Boynton,2007-12-18 Forty years after Tom Wolfe Hunter S Thompson and Gay Talese launched the New Journalism movement Robert S Boynton sits down contributed to auto dependence rapid urban sprawl extravagant energy use and a host of other problems Planners mandate free parking to alleviate congestion but end up distorting transportation choices debasing urban design damaging the economy and degrading the environment Ubiquitous free parking helps explain why our cities sprawl on a scale fit more for cars than for people and why American motor vehicles now consume one eighth of the world s total oil production But it doesn t have to be this way Shoup proposes new ways for cities to regulate parking namely charge fair market prices for curb parking use the resulting revenue to pay for services in the neighborhoods that generate it and remove zoning requirements for off street parking Such measures according to the Yale trained economist and UCLA planning professor will make parking easier and driving less necessary Join the swelling ranks of Shoupistas by picking up this book today You ll never look at a parking spot the same way again Politics of Parking Sarah Marusek,2016-04-22 There is more to parking law than just parking penalties Considering the ways in which law works in everyday life and in familiar places of common experience where the presence of law is not obvious this book explores the various notions of the right to park which jurisprudentially is enacted between individuals in everyday parking From parking areas to the courtroom parking engenders disputes over equality speech legitimacy and entitlement that reach beyond the stated scope of policy Looking beyond the obvious this book examines the contested site of the parking space as a place of socio legal meaning where property claims and rights shape identities Adopting a constitutive approach to the study of law the book examines how regulation of parking policy is at odds with the force of localised politics producing competing notions of legality and examples of legal semiotics within the terrain of legal geography Drive Tim Falconer,2008-05-06 Liberation lust envy rage power thrill our cars provoke enough emotion to jam a six lane highway If you name your ride reminisce about sex in the back seat or enjoy roaring down the open road you know why we love our wheels But if you hate traffic curse at the price at the pump or fight over parking spaces you know why we hate them too Drive is a cross continent adventure that explores where our fuel injected dreams have taken us Award winning journalist Tim Falconer invites us on his road trip as he meets vintage car enthusiasts on Route 66 rides along in a police cruiser kicks the tires at a Las Vegas auto show and takes a hydrogen powered car for a spin Steering us along North America s interstates and blue highways meandering through small towns sprawling suburbs and walkable neighbourhoods Falconer shows us the growing collision of cars and people In this complicated affair who s really in the driver s seat Can smart growth public transit and complete streets free us A spirited front seat view of quirky locals and locales Drive looks at what auto dominated life means to our health environment and communities Falconer also opens the door on British and Argentine car cultures and considers the road ahead for China and India nations with increasingly American attitudes As billions grab their keys can we avoid carmageddon A fascinating survey of the automobile and its effect on society A fun book about a serious topic Winnipeg Free Press Essential reading for any Canadian intrigued by the conundrum of finding better ways to get from here to there Spacing magazine Jackson, 1964 Calvin Trillin,2016 An
