

'Nobody wants their queers'

The 'split' between hetero feminists and lesbians

Now, while I might theoretically argue that the feminist movement is a movement of women and their children, I know, nonetheless, how many young women feel excluded from the movement. So my readers want to know what I think about this.

On the one hand, I think that the feminist movement is a movement of women and their children, and I think that the feminist movement is a movement of women and their children.

On the other hand, I think that the feminist movement is a movement of women and their children, and I think that the feminist movement is a movement of women and their children.

The Backlash

By 1970, the backlash had begun. It was a backlash against the feminist movement, and it was a backlash against the feminist movement.

Lesbian Death Mairead Sullivan, 2022-11-29 Engaging with fears of lesbian death to explore the value of lesbian beyond identity The loss of lesbian spaces as well as ideas of the lesbian as anachronistic has called into question the place of lesbian identity within our current culture In Lesbian Death Mairead Sullivan probes the perception that lesbian status is in retreat exploring the political promises and especially the failures of lesbian feminism and its usefulness today Lesbian Death reads how lesbian is conceptualized in relation to death from the 1970s onward to argue that lesbian offers disruptive potential Lesbian Death examines the rise of lesbian breast cancer activism in San Francisco in conversation with ACT UP the lesbian separatist manifestos The C L I T Papers the enduring specter of lesbian bed death and the weaponization of lesbian identity against trans lives By situating the lesbian as a border figure between feminist and queer Lesbian Death offers a fresh perspective on the value of lesbian for both feminist and queer projects even if her value is her death

The Gay, Lesbian, and Bisexual Students' Guide to Colleges, Universities, and Graduate Schools Jan-Mitchell Sherrill, Craig Hardesty, 1994-03 Studies estimate that one in six college students is gay lesbian or bisexual The presence role and acceptance of these students has received much attention in recent years Yet there exists no resource by which they can judge the climate at the nation s schools The first book to evaluate the college and university experiences of gay lesbian and bisexual students this volume gives voice to the largest under recognized minority on the nation s campuses Publisher s description

Lesbian Friendships Jacqueline S. Weinstock, Esther Rothblum, 1996-08 Friends as lovers lovers as friends ex lovers as friends ex lovers as family friends as family communities of friends lesbian community These are just a few of the phrases heard often in the daily discourse of lesbian life What significance do they have for lesbians Do lesbians view friends as family and what does this analogy mean What sorts of friendships exist between lesbians What sorts of friendships do lesbians form with non lesbian women or with men These and other questions regarding the kinds of friendships lesbians imagine and experience have rarely been addressed Lesbian Friendships focuses on actual accounts of friendships involving lesbians and examines a number of issues including the transition from friends to lovers and or lovers to friends erotic attraction in friendship diverse identities among lesbians and friendships across sexuality and or gender lines

Breaking the Wave: Women, Their Organizations, and Feminism, 1945-1985 Kathleen A. Laughlin, Jacqueline Castledine, 2012-12-06 Breaking the Wave is the first anthology of original essays by both younger and established scholars that takes a long view of feminist activism by systematically examining the dynamics of movement persistence during moments of reaction and backlash Ranging from the civic feminism of white middle class organizers and the womanism of Harlem consumers in the immediate postwar period to the utopian feminism of Massachusetts lesbian softball league founders and environmentally minded feminists in the 1970s and 1980s Breaking the Wave documents a continuity of activism in both national and local organizing that creates a new discussion and a new paradigm for twentieth century women s history Contributors Jacqueline L Castledine Susan K Freeman Julie A Gallagher Marcia Gallo Sally J Kenney Rebecca M Kluchin Kathleen A Laughlin Lanethea Mathews Catherine E Rymph Julia Sandy Bailey Jennifer A Stevens Janet Weaver and Leandra Zarnow Her Neighbor's Wife Lauren Jae Gutterman,2019-11-01 At first glance Barbara Kalish fit the stereotype of a 1950s wife and mother Married at eighteen Barbara lived with her husband and two daughters in a California suburb where she was president of the Parent Teacher Association At a PTA training conference in San Francisco Barbara met Pearl another PTA president who also had two children and happened to live only a few blocks away from her To Barbara Pearl was the most gorgeous woman in the world and the two began an affair that lasted over a decade Through interviews diaries memoirs and letters Her Neighbor s Wife traces the stories of hundreds of women like Barbara Kalish who struggled to balance marriage and same sex desire in the postwar United States In doing so Lauren Jae Gutterman draws our attention away from the postwar landscape of urban gay bars and into the homes of married women who tended to engage in affairs with wives and mothers they met in the context of their daily lives through work at church or in their neighborhoods In the late 1960s and 1970s the lesbian feminist movement and the no fault divorce revolution transformed the lives of wives who desired women Women could now choose to divorce their husbands in order to lead openly lesbian or bisexual lives increasingly however these women were confronted by hostile state discrimination typically in legal battles over child custody Well into the 1980s many women remained ambivalent about divorce and resistant to labeling themselves as lesbian therefore complicating a simple interpretation of their lives and relationship choices By revealing the extent to which marriage has historically permitted space for wives relationships with other women Her Neighbor s Wife calls into question the presumed straightness of traditional American marriage The Emerging Lesbian Tze-Lan D. Sang,2003-01-15 In early twentieth century China age old traditions of homosocial and homoerotic relationships between women suddenly became an issue of widespread public concern Discussed formerly in terms of friendship and sisterhood these relationships came to be associated with feminism on the one hand and psychobiological perversion on the other a radical shift whose origins have long been unclear In this first ever book length study of Chinese lesbians Tze lan D Sang convincingly ties the debate over female same sex love in China to the emergence of Chinese modernity As women s participation in social economic and political affairs grew Sang argues so too did the societal significance of their romantic and sexual relations Focusing especially on literature by or about women preferring women Sang traces the history of female same sex relations in China from the late imperial period 1600 1911 through the Republican era 1912 1949 She ends by examining the reemergence of public debate on lesbians in China after Mao and in Taiwan after martial law including the important roles played by globalization and identity politics
