The Bayeux Tapestry Embroiderers Story:

The Bayeux Tapestry Embroiderers' Story Jan Messent, 2010 Blending historical facts and an absorbing account concentrating on the practical aspects of creating such a mammoth piece of art this survey examines the mysteries behind a centuries old artifact the Bayeux Tapestry Through vividly detailed illustrations impeccably true to the piece s intricately worked characters and elements this volume offers a thoughtful envisioning of the stories of the women involved in embroidering the piece their identities materials methods organization working conditions and venues Incorporating a sketchbook feel that evokes a sense of a work in process the chronicle pieces together an extensively researched and colorful narrative that helps place the famous embroidery in a plausible context The author s reconstruction of the final eight feet that are missing from the tapestry will be of particular interest to embroiderers Publisher s description

The Bayeux Tapestry and Its Contexts Elizabeth Carson Pastan, Stephen D. White, Kate Gilbert, 2014 A full and provocative reappraisal of the Bayeux Tapestry its origins design and patronage Aspects of the Bayeux Tapestry in fact an embroidered hanging have always remained mysterious despite much scholarly investigation not least its design and patron Here in the first full length interdisciplinary approach to the subject the authors an art historian and a historian consider these and other issues Rejecting the prevalent view that it was commissioned by Odo the bishop of Bayeux and half brother of William the Conqueror or by some other comparable patron they bring new evidence to bear on the question of its relationship to the abbey of St Augustine s Canterbury From the study of art historical archeological literary historical and documentary materials they conclude that the monks of St Augustine s designed the hanging for display in their abbey church to tell their own story of how England was invaded and conquered in 1066 Elizabeth Carson Pastan is a Professor of Art History at Emory University Stephen D White is Asa G Candler Professor of Medieval History emeritus Emory University and an Honorary Professor of Mediaeval History at the University of St Andrews

The Bayeux Tapestry John F. Szabo, Nicholas E. Kuefler, 2015-06-18 Commanding its own museum and over 200 years of examination observation and scholarship the monumental embroidery known popularly as the Bayeux Tapestry and documenting William the Conqueror s invasion of England in October 1066 is perhaps the most important surviving artifact of the Middle Ages This magnificent textile both celebrated and panned is both enigmatic artwork and confounding historical record With over 1780 entries Szabo and Kuefler offer the largest and most heavily annotated bibliography on the Tapestry ever written Notably the Bayeux Tapestry has produced some of the most compelling questions of the medieval period Who commissioned it and for what purpose What was the intended venue for its display Who was the designer and who executed the enormous task of its manufacture How does it inform our understanding of eleventh century life And who was the mysterious Aelfgyva depicted in the Tapestry s main register This book is an effort to capture and describe the scholarship that attempts to answer these questions But the bibliography also reflects the popularity of the Tapestry in literature covering a surprisingly broad array of subjects The inclusion of this material will assist future scholars who may study references to the work in contemporary non fiction and popular works as well as use of the Bayeux Tapestry as a primary and secondary source in the classroom The monographs articles and other works cited in this bibliography reflect dozens of research areas Major themes are the Tapestry as a source of information for eleventh century material culture its role in telling the story of the Battle of Hastings and events leading up to the invasion patronage of the Tapestry biographical detail on known historical figures in the Tapestry arms and armor medieval warfare strategy and techniques opus anglicanum the Anglo Saxon needlework tradition preservation and display of the artifact the Tapestry s place in medieval art the embroidery s depiction of medieval and Romanesque architecture and the life of the Bayeux Tapestry itself The Bayeux Tapestry Martin Kennedy Foys,Karen Eileen Overbey,Dan Terkla,2009

In the past two decades scholarly assessment of the Bayeux Tapestry has begun to consider issues beyond its sources and analogues dating origin and purpose and site of display This volume demonstrates the utility of more recent interpretive approaches to this famous artefact especially with regard to newer concepts of gender materiality reception theory cultural criticism performativity spatial narrative New Historicism and post structuralism The essays frame vital issues for the future of Tapestry scholarship they provide original perspectives and engage with myriad critical concerns the New historical layering of meaning representational systems of gender difference visibility memory and architecture modern obsessions with author like patronage post colonial notions of territory and saintly relics and the function of historiography and media A bibliography of three centuries of critical writings completes the work Book Jacket Decoding the Bayeux Tapestry

Arthur Colin Wright,2019-07-30 For the first time a scholar reveals the meaning of the marginal images on the Bayeux Tapestry unlocking a completely new meaning of the work The story of the Norman Conquest and the Battle of Hastings as shown in the Bayeux Tapestry is arguably the most widely known in the panoply of English history and over the last 200 years there have been hundreds of books on the Tapestry seeking to analyze its meanings Yet there is one aspect of the embroidery that has been virtually ignored or dismissed as unimportant by historians the details in the margins The fables shown in the margins are neither just part of a decorative ribbon nor are they discontinuous They follow on in sequence When this is understood it becomes clear that they must relate to the action shown on the body of the Tapestry After careful examination the purpose of these images is to amplify elaborate or explain the main story In this groundbreaking study Arthur Wright reveals the significance of the images in the margins Now it is possible to see the whole story as never before enabling a more complete picture of the Bayeux Tapestry to be constructed Wright reexamines many of the scenes in the main body of the work showing that a number of the basic assumptions so often taught as facts have been based on nothing more than reasoned conjecture It might be thought that after so much has been written about the Bayeux Tapestry there was nothing more to be said but Decoding the Bayeux Tapestry shows how much there is still to be learned The

North,2012-05-17 The most up to date research in the period from the Anglo Saxons to Angevins This volume of the Haskins Society Journal continues its tradition of publishing the best historical and interdisciplinary research on the early and central middle ages in the Anglo Saxon Anglo Norman and Angevin worlds The topics of the essays range from legal influences on Alfred s Mosaic Prologue judicial processes in tenth century Iberia and the ecclesiology of the Norman Anonymous to the nature and implications of comital authority in the eleventh and twelfth century Anglo Norman realm and conceptions of servitude in legal thinking in thirteenth century Catalonia The volume also embraces art history with contributions on the medieval object as subject the banquet scene in the Bayeux Tapestry and there is a synoptic archeological exploration of early medieval Britain Finally an edition and translation of the De Abbatibus of Mont Saint Michel makes available in complete and reliable form an important witness to this Norman monastery s medieval past Contributors Thomas Bisson Charlotte Cartwright Martin Carver Kerrith Davies Wendy Davies Paul Freedman James Ginther Stefan Jurasinski Elizabeth Carson Pastan The Lost Art of the Anglo-Saxon World Alexandra Lester-Makin,2019-11-01 This latest title in the highly successful Ancient Textiles series is the first substantial monograph length historiography of early medieval embroideries and their context within the British Isles The book brings together and analyses for the first time all 43 embroideries believed to have been made in the British Isles and Ireland in the early medieval period New research carried out on those embroideries that are accessible today involving the collection of technical data stitch analysis observations of condition and wear marks and microscopic photography supplements a survey of existing published and archival sources The research has been used to write for the first time the story of embroidery including what we can learn of its producers their techniques and the material functions and metaphorical meanings of embroidery within early medieval Anglo Saxon society The author presents embroideries as evidence for the evolution of embroidery production in Anglo Saxon society from a community based activity based on the extended family to organized workshops in urban settings employing standardized skill levels and as evidence of changing material use from small amounts of fibers produced locally for specific projects to large batches brought in from a distance and stored until needed She demonstrate that embroideries were not simply used decoratively but to incorporate and enact different meanings within different parts of society for example the newly arrived Germanic settlers of the fifth century used embroidery to maintain links with their homelands and to create tribal ties and obligations As such the results inform discussion of embroidery contexts use and deposition and the significance of this form of material culture within society as well as an evaluation of the status of embroiderers within early medieval society The results contribute significantly to our understanding of production systems in Anglo Saxon England and Ireland Threads of Life Clare Hunter,2019-10-15 This globe spanning history of sewing and embroidery culture and protest is an astonishing feat richly textured and moving The Sunday Times UK In 1970s Argentina mothers marched in headscarves embroidered with the names of their disappeared children In Tudor England when Mary Queen of Scots was under house arrest her needlework carried her messages to the outside world From the political propaganda of the Bayeux Tapestry World War I soldiers coping with PTSD and the maps sewn by schoolgirls in the New World to the AIDS quilt Hmong story clothes and pink pussyhats women and men have used the language of sewing to make their voices heard even in the most desperate of circumstances Threads of Life is a chronicle of identity memory power and politics told through the stories of needlework Clare Hunter master of the craft threads her own narrative as she takes us over centuries and across continents from medieval France to contemporary Mexico and the United States and from a POW camp in Singapore to a family attic in Scotland to celebrate the universal beauty and power of sewing

The Bayeux Tapestry Gale R. Owen-Crocker, 2023-05-31 This collection of fifteen papers ranges from the author's initial interest in the Tapestry as a source of information on early medieval dress through to her startling recognition of the embroidery's sophisticated narrative structure Developing the work of previous authors who had identified graphic models for some of the images she argues that not just the images themselves but the contexts from which they were drawn should be taken in to account in reading the messages of the Tapestry In further investigating the minds and hands behind this the largest non architectural artefact surviving from the Middle Ages she ranges over the seams the embroidery stitches the language and artistry of the inscription the potential significance of borders and the gestures of the figures in the main register always scrutinising detail informatively She identifies an over riding conception and house style in the Tapestry but also sees different hands at work in both needlecraft and graphics Most intriguingly she recognises a sub contractor with a Roman source and a clownish wit The author is Professor of Anglo Saxon Culture at The University of Manchester UK a specialist in Old English poetry Anglo Saxon material culture and medieval dress and textiles
